Mr. Belcher is the Conservative candidate for North Bruce in the next Dominion Elections. He is a middle-aged man of a very interesting personality. He is very popular among the young men of Bruce and it is felt that he will be successful. He formerly was for two years District Manager for Bruce for the Crown Life Insurance Co., Toronto, and he then spent all of his time in Bruce. In a brief conversation with a Planet resporter, Mr. Belcher said:

"The Liberals there have a majority of about 150, which we hope to turn ever this time. In the redistribution bill Bruce has been made into three districts, where before we had just two. This makes it harder for us. The chectors of Bruce are not at all satisfied with the Grand Trunk Pacific bill, and they think the Government is plunging too much. They think that for their promises of economy they are going too swift."

Mr. Belcher has a sound, sensible platform to work on. He is thoroughing modern in his ideas. He said:

"I would advocate and farm; improvement of our public rollities — telegraph, telephone, electric lighting, trolly railways and water powers; free rurely mail delivery: a proper cattle guard to be provided by the railways; free carriage of mails by the railways; free car approval of the ratepayers.

The super ntendent of city schools in one of the Colorado cities is on the lookout for a first class commercial teacher, and Mr. Wells, who has tharge of the Junor Commercial Department of the Canada Busness College, received an offer of the appointment, but has declined. The position is worth $80 per month to commence with and would soon be worth $100. Mr. Wells has reason to feel flattered that his services are in such demand.

service as a business man of Chat-ham Ald. E. A. Mountéer has sold out his business and will take a swell earned rest.

The deal was made to-day, whereby Messrs. V. C. Mounteer and W. J. Eaton, two enterprising and experienced citizens, purphased the entire busness and will asaime control next Monday morning. This has been on foot for some time, but the articles were not signed until to-day. The new firm will be known as Mounteer and Easton.

V. C. Mounteer, one of the new proprietors, is well known in the city, having been in the employ of his brother for several years. Mr. Easton is also well known here. He is a bright young business man and terved his apprenticeship with E. M. Mounteer soms years ago. There is no doubt that the new firm will receive a very extensive patronage.

"Just twenty-live years ago this mouth I started busness in Chatham." sa'd Ald. E. A. Mounteer to The Planet this morning. "I first started in a grocery and meat shop on the corner of Queen and Harvey streets, where Mr. Terry's confection for the kind, patient, and the moved to the opposite or new to the entire of the city. moved across the road to my present site, and there I have remained ever since. "I have seen a good many changes in Chatham. My memory dates back to "72, and I can remember when all of the buildings on the north side of King street between the Chatham Loan & Savings Co. and the Merchants' Bank were built, and also all of the buildings on the south side from Sulman's to the market square and, in fact, from the market square and, in fact, from the market to the Merrill House, with the exception of Martin's Hotel and Richards' bakery. I can remember when the buildings between Thornton & Douglas' to the Rankin House, with the exception of the stores now occupied by Tilt and Kelly. It seems funny, but I can remember when the old building now owned by thos. Nichol was one of the finest in Chatham and had by far the best store fronts." Mr. Mounteer returns from business with a clean record. During his whole career he has proven himself in all of his dealings, a good business man and a thorough gentleman. The people of Chatham have shown their confidence in him by electing him to the Council every time he has affered himself from '96 to '97 and

A PLEASANT SURPRISE

On Wednesday afternoon a very close observer might have noticed a spirit of unrest among the students of the Shorthand Department of the Canada Business College, that betokened that something was likely to happen, and it did happen.

A few minutes before four p. m. the principal was asked to engage the attention of Mr. Powers, principal of the department, for a few minutes in the office, while they arranged a pleasant surprise for him in the school room. The suggestion was acted upon, and on Mr. Powers' return to the room he was presented with a liandsome piece of silver, with the following address:

Dear Sir and Teacher,—As pupils of the Shorthand Department of the Canada Business College, we wish to express to you on the occasion of your marriage, our esteem and appreciation for the kind, patient, and gentlemanly manner in which you have presided over the department under your change. Our advancement in our staffies has always received every attention at your hands, and to remind you that we have not forgotten. To Mr. J. W. Powers, C. B. College:

DORA TURNBULL.

Mr. Powers is an undergraduate of Toronto University, has been teaching in the Shorthand Department of the C. B. C. for a period of nearly four years, and prior to his coming was engaged in public school work in Prince Edward County for several years. He has always been a most painstaking and conscientious teacher, and his pupils have not failed to appreciate that fact.

Mrs. Powers (formerly Miss Margaret Haviland, of Chatham,) was a student of the Shorthand Department about four years ago.
