EXPERIENCE AND LOGIC

The chief of police of St. Louis, William O'Brien is quoted as saying that the effect of prohibition on crime is still "in its infancy." "Give it a little time and it will cut down major cases," is his advice. Chief of Police John J. Garrity, of Chicago adds similar testimony, saying, "We've had as many murders and other crimes as formerly. The professional criminal however, usually is not a drinking man." He also states that prohibition has "hardly had time to make a real comparison possible." In the minds of these officers and others experienced in dealing with criminals, the professional criminal, who is responsible for a large amount of our serious crime, is the product of anti-social tendencies, of which alcoholism is one of the most important. Prohibition cannot be expected to reform the professional criminal already in existence. But it may be safely relied upon to decrease the number of professional criminals in the making and so in time also decrease the more serious crimes.

INDIA'S GREAT NEED.

A great need in India is that of prohibition. There are fourteen liquor shops in Allahabad paying a revenue of from $1,000 to $6,000 gold and it is estimated that 65 per cent of the Hindus and 50 per cent of the Mohammedans drink. So there is no question of the need of a temperance movement. The people want the mission-ary to help them, for their own religions oppose this thing. The slogan in Allahabad is: "India Dry in 1925."

W. E. MACLELLAN, Acting District Superintendent. DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT'S OFFICE, Halifax, N. S., 27th August, 1921.

BONE DRY AFRICAN KING.

King Khama, ruler of Bechuanaland South Africa, was informed that a Government commission had recommended the sale of light wines and beers to the natives. He immediately declared that if the plan was carried out he would forbid his subjects from working in the gold mines. The industrial situation already rendered almost intolerable by the loss of thousands of native workers through the ravages of influenza, would thus become alarming, for those who know King Khama realize that he would not hesitate to carry out his threat. The temperance party, led by the king, is strong in South Africa, where the king is known as a strong temperance monarch. Also they know him in England, where he has often appeared on temperance platforms.

DEFEAT DUE TO ALCOHOL

President Heinische, of Austria, addressing an assembly of German prohibitionists last month, said: "We would have won the war if the people of both Germany and Austria-Hungary could have been persuaded to practice total alcoholic abstinence. As you know, I have been many years a teetotaler; I drink no alcoholic beverages, nor do I smoke. Every day of drinking is a lost battle. Today the alcohol question is of the utmost importance."

THE FAIR SEX.

When Eve brought wo to all mankind, Old Adam called her wo-man; But when she woo'd with love so kind— He then pronounced it wo-man But now with folly and with pride Their husband's pockets trimming The ladies are so full of whims, That people call them whimmen!

MOTURING CONDITIONS THROUGH CANADA'S MARITIME PROVINCES

(Continued from page 3) ful marine views. This, however, is not as good as the bay-side route as there are long stretches of poor road. There are three very good cross connections from the Bay of Fundy side to the ocean side of Nova Scotia; from Digby or Annapolis Royal through Maitland and Harmony Mills to Liverpool; from Middleton through Hastings Junction and Rivendale to Bridgewater; and from Kentville and New Ross to Chester.

Nova Scotia offers splendid sport to fishermen, the streams and lakes abounding in square tail brook trout, weighing as high as four and five pounds. These can be caught in almost any of the streams throughout Nova Scotia and Cape Breton Island. The Acadian country is also known as the Hunter's Paradise. Moose and deer, also bear, can be killed in season within a few hours run of any of the towns and villages. There is also good ruffed grouse shooting and almost every species of water fowl. As an alternative, a crossing can be made from Boston to Yarmouth, Nova Scotia, by the steamships of the Eastern Steamship Company, providing a delightful over-night sail through the Bay of Fundy. From Yarmouth, motorists follow the west shore road through the Annapolis Valley, passing the towns of Digby, Kentville and Wolfville and so on to Windsor and Halifax. The journey from Yarmouth to Halifax takes the motorist through a succession of orchards and in the Spring when they are in blossom the scene is one of great beauty. Another feature of this trip from Yarmouth to Halifax is the tide; at Windsor, there is one of the highest tides in the world, with a rise of 65 feet. Halifax is a fine city, with beautiful parks and gardens and a wonderful landlocked harbor, it is also one of the strongest natural fortresses in the world. Good hotel accommodations are available.
