

Local News and Personal Items

The Observer asks every reader to help make this page interesting by contributing any local news or personal items they may know about. The editor must depend on the reader to supply the news for the page. Your letters to and from the editor concerning your family and friends, we want them all. Don't blame the editor if what you write is not of interest to the public. Anything in the nature of advertising appearing in this column must be paid for at the rate of 5 cents a line. This applies to Cards of Thanks, Announcements of Marriages or Deaths, For Sale, Wants, Lost, Found, etc. Changed items will be 30 cents a line. Better send the money with the item, something like a note. No ad will run less than a week.

Any subscribers whose subscriptions have expired since July 31 may renew for another year for $1.50 if they send the money to the office not later than Oct. 31. This is a special offer to meet the distressed conditions of the farmers and others who are suffering stringency from the low prices and poor crops.

Two automobiles looked horns in front of The Observer yesterday forenoon and one of them, a Durant owned by Edmund Elgett, had the rear axle bent. The turn on to the bridge is always dangerous and yet it seems that many motorists make a point of "stepping on the gas" at this place where every caution should be exercised.

Mr. Banks of Virginia, the largest potato buyer of that state, was here this week interested in seed stock, and on Tuesday H. E. Hatfield took him to Aroostook county to look the situation over. Mr. Hatfield says that Aroostook buyers are paying 75 cents for potatoes, and numbers of farmers are forsaking their crops and leaving all they have to the mortgagee. The county apparently gets its worst blow of all this year. Yesterday Mr. Hatfield went to St. John to attend a meeting of potato growers and southern buyers. Every effort is being made to discover an outlet for the crop. Mr. Godwin of Ottawa is in Hartland inspecting potatoes for disease and those he certifies as free will be saleable for seed stock.

There is for sale at a really low price one of Hartland's most comfortable homes. It is situated in a delightful spot and three acres of land around it. The house has eight rooms well finished throughout and has spring water in any part of it. There is a good barn. This is a splendid buy for somebody. Ask The Observer for further particulars.

Distinguished visitors at the Observer Office this morning were R. W. Saunders, General Manager of the Famous Players Laskay Film Corporation of New York City, and E. H. Kittridge, Public Agent of the Old Colony Trust Company of Boston. They were accompanied by W. B. Harmon a former Woodstock boy now of Boston, and Chas. Clark of Woodstock, and were on their way to the hunting grounds of the Miramichi.

RAZORS

has 100 Durham Duplex Razors which they are practically giving away. These razors are safety razors and are genuine—no fake. The proposition is this—a customer buys $1.00 worth of goods or more if he wants to do so, and then by paying only 10 cents more he can have the above razor with its one blade which with its double edge will give at least 5 good shaves, each shave a satisfaction.

This proposition will last only until the present supply of razors is used up. Afterwards we will keep on hand spare blades and new razors but these last will cost you $1.00 each.

Whether you buy Kodak Supplies, Nyal or Rexall Preparations, or what not, the above offer holds until razors are gone.

NO PROFITEERING WITH ZAM-BUK

Before the war, Zam-Buk was 50c a box. All during the war, when the cost of production was rapidly advancing, the price of Zam-Buk to the consumer remained the same. Now, with the war over, while some prices continue to soar, Zam-Buk is still 50c a box! Not only so, but the same high standard of quality has been maintained throughout.

There has been no profiteering in regard to Zam-Buk. For every box you have bought, you have been asked to pay fair value only. Is this method of doing business not worthy of recognition? Answer this question by continuing to recommend, to appreciate, and to use Zam-Buk—the greatest household healer of modern times.

Use it for all skin troubles, eczema, ringworm, abscesses, ulcers, boils, pimples, piles, blood-poisoning, chapped hands, cold sores, cuts, bruises, burns, scalds, etc.

All Dealers, See Box.
