WELCOME TO LEADER MACKAY.

Welcome to Leader MacKay,
In Hamilton, happy, to-day!
He's brilliant and poid, and both youthfu
Should hear what he's with us to say.

Remember, he'll certainly soon
Be higher aloft than the moon,
Or even than Whitney, who'll soon get the mitteny
From those who now think him a boon.

He's got all the grit that's required
To render Ontario fired
With the wish for a change in the region where range
The men who to rule her are hired.

So let us all rush, whether youthful or grey And hear the new leader, illustrious MacKay

Fourth Commandment."

—Mr. John C. Shaw, of Norwich, passed through the city to-day on his return from Washington, where the sessions of the American Association of Farmers' Institutes were held. Several gentlemen from Ontario were in attendance including the president of the O.A. C., and Superintendent Geo. A. Putman. Ontario maintained her position very creditably in the line of Institute work.

The Clothing Business is Peculiar

Advances in prices are well known, however, because of our relation with certain of the best manufacturers, who give us first opportunities to secure special lines, we are able to make attractive price reductions on goods which are in demand.
