SUMMER OPENING.

Formal Opening and Exhibition of New Summer Styles at Right House To-morrow and Following Days.

The Thomas C. Watkins' store announces in to-night's papers their formal summer opening and style exhibition of the season's authoritative styles.

The summer opening and Victoria Day sales at The Right House will create widespread interest not only because of the splendid values offered, but because of the vast varieties of newest merchan-dise that will be on exhibition and sale. It is a fitting demonstration of Right value-giving and purchasing

MOUNTAIN PARK OPENING.

Mountain View Park, the popular summer resort, will open its season on Saturday afternoon, May 23rd. A numof improvements have been made. A new floor has been laid in the roller rink and the skates will be in first class con-dition. Mr. Leonard Chubb has been re-engaged to manage the rink. Lomas' band will be in attendance every evening band will be in attendance every evening and Wednesday and Saturday afternoon. In addition to attractions of last season, the house of nonsense or laugh-ing gallery, has been added, which is sure to become very popular. Messrs, Bessey and Weaver intend to cater specially to ladies and children and everything will be conducted in a first-class manner.

Arrangements have been made for reduced rates on the Incline Railway.

AT THE ALEXANDRA.

The last midweek session of the season will be held on Thursday night this week when there will be skating from 7.30 to 10 p. m. with the fine rink band in attendance playing 15 skating numbers as usual. The rink is delightfully cool these evenings as the large air space given by the high roof insures perfect ventilation and a circulation of pure air at all times. The rink will also be open on Saturday evening and on Victoria Day, two sessions, afternoon and evening, with special band.

City Engineer Barrow is going to give the Fire and Water Committee another prod to-night over the cleaning out of the filtering basins. He thinks much valuable time has been lost in getting this work under way. The basins might have been thoroughly cleaned before the summer had operations been begun the first thing this year.

Still another patch of the Jolley Cut tumbled down the mountain side to-day. The city officials say that the $500 voted for repairing the cut would hardly make enough improvement to be noticed if the work is done by hand labor. They have been delaying in the hope that the city would complete the deal for the purchase of the steam shovel-
