House hunting used to be toil.

Many a woman has endured hardships during the period of house hunting preceding the period of moving that has told heavily on her strength. Do not wear yourself out looking for a house. Save your strength. You will need it in these first few days when you want to straighten up your new home.

Instead of trudging up one street and down another, simply turn to the Classified Columns of this newspaper. There you will find houses that are for rent. If the kind of a dwelling that you want is not published, place your own advertisement stating what you want in next day's paper. Some landlord will see your advertisement and will come to you.

St. Mark's Literary. St. Mark's Literary Society held a very interesting and well attended meeting on Monday evening in the Parish house. The chief feature of the evening was a debate, the subject being "Resolved that solitude is more conducive to mental and moral improvement than society." E. Lancofield and Miss Gladys Zealand supported the affirmative, while L. Woodhouse and Miss C. Smith were the speakers on the negative side. Kiwan Martin, M. A., and Mr. Collins, of Christ's Church Cathedral Literary Society, acted as judges. The arguments were excellently presented on both sides, and the judges had difficulty in coming to a decision, deciding finally in favor of the affirmative by a very narrow margin. A short musical programme followed and was much enjoyed. It consisted of a piano selection by W. Thresher, jun., song by T. Jocelyn, and the singing of the chorus, "Oh, Who Will O'er the Downs so Free," by the members of the society. J. Dempsey recited in his usual effective manner.

BARTON Y. M. U. A very interesting meeting was held by Barton Street Church Y. M. U. last evening, when Russell McGillivray gave an interesting talk on missionary work among the miners and ranchers of British Columbia. He said the miners were not prone to evil, but evil was all around them. He believed if Christianity was brought to them they would soon forget evil. He urged for the young men to further consecrate themselves with the work of his missions. Arrangements are being made for a mock parliament, to be held in three weeks, all young men are invited to become connected with the society and help along this work.

Always Welcome. "Is it true that you farmers are hostile to balloonists?" ventured the young aeronaut, who had descended in the barnyard. "Why, no, stranger," laughed the old farmer, as he came forward with a pitchfork. "We are always glad to have a balloon land on our place." "I'm certainly glad to hear it." "Yaas, the last one that landed here came in handy. I used the ropes to tie the steers, packed corn in the basket, and cut the gas bag up and made overalls for all the farm hands. Welcome, stranger, welcome!"—Chicago News.
