Disappearing Animals.

Dr. A. E. Shipley, F. R. S., in speaking of the extinction of a number of the world's interesting animals says the Eu-ropean basever had nearly gone; the Eu-ropean bison was represented by a few wild spectmens in the Caucasus. The American Isson was reduced to a few herds most carefully preserved by Gov-erament. The destruction of the fur seal threat-

The destruction of the fur seal threat-ened soon to be complete, and the Green-land sealing industry was now nearly a thing of the past, so few seals were there, though forty years ago they were being killed at the rate of 100,000 a year. Whales were also disappearing.
