Attempt to Torpedo Cunard Liner Orduna

Liner Carried 227 Passengers, Including 22 Americans--Were All Asleep.

New York, July 18.—The Cunard liner Orduna, bound from Liverpool, to New York with 227 passengers including twenty-two Americans, was attacked without warning, it was learned on her arrival here Saturday, by a German submarine on the morning of July 9.

Twenty miles from the graveyard of the Lusitania off Old Head of Kinsale, the Orduna escaped the Lusitania's fate by one-half a second or time, or ten feet of space, the German torpedo churning the water that distance behind the liner's rudder. Then the Orduna sped away. She was followed by the submarine which rose to the surface, trained a gun on her deck and shell the fleeing steamer.

The attack was timed at ten minutes to six o'clock in the morning, when all but a few of her passengers lay sleeping in their berths.

Protest will be made to the American Government by at least one citizen of the United States, and possibly others. William O. Thompson, of Chicago, counsel to the Federal Industrial Relations Commission, who went abroad in his official capacity last March and was returning to complete his mission by making a report, is the passenger who said today that he would make a vigorous protest to the American Government.

Captain Taylor's official report of the attack follows:

"At 5.50 a. m., July 9th, a lookout man on the after-bridge ran the telegraph, at the same time pointing his hand downward, and out on the port beam. The third officer was immediately sent aft to inquire what was seen.

"He returned quickly and reported both men had seen a torpedo pass across the stern from port to starboard (within ten feet) clear of the rudder.

"In the meantime both the chief officer and myself distinctly saw the

Bathurst Concert Met With Success

At the Opera House Friday evening the Bathurst amateurs, under the leadership of Mr. Theodore H. Bird, presented the four act comedy drama "Jack's Wife," to a capacity house. The acting was all that could be desired and every member of the following cast acquitted themselves with honors.

$700 WORTH OF PRIZES TO THE LADIES OF NEWCASTLE AND SURROUNDING DISTRICT

Every Lady in Newcastle and in the Circulation Zone of The Union Advocate is eligible to share in this Great Prize Distribution

1st PRIZE--$400 LONSDALE PIANO

Three Other Prizes Totaling $300 or more

Costs Nothing to Enter.

Every Worker is Sure of Winning

Not a Game of Chance but a Test of Merit and Popularity

THURSDAY, JULY 15th

The Union Advocate formally institutes its Great Voting Contest, in which $700 worth or more of beautiful and highly Useful Prizes will be given away absolutely Free to those Ladies who take part in it.

The first prize will be a beautiful Lonsdale Piano, which sells regularly throughout Canada for $400. This instrument will constitute a truly magnificent prize and the lady who wins it will have just cause to congratulate herself on her success. The Lonsdale Piano is one of the finest instruments manufactured in Canada; and it has achieved a most enviable reputation among people of cultured musical tastes who know piano values, on account of its thoroughly high class construction and tonal qualities. The winner of the Advocate voting contest will, therefore, have the satisfaction of becoming the owner of an absolutely dependable, high-grade piano which she will be proud to use and exhibit in her home. At least three other prizes will be awarded to ladies who take part in the contest. The value of these will be not less than $300 and may exceed that sum.

How the Prizes are to be Won

The Voting Contest will be primarily a subscription campaign in the interests of the Advocate and Every Woman's World, each of which publications sell at $1 a year. Any lady living within the circulation zone of the Advocate may enter the contest, whether she is or is not a subscriber to either publication, and may secure subscriptions to either or both publications from anyone, anywhere, for any length of time. For each and every subscription obtained by contestants, votes will be credited according to the advertised vote schedules, and the contestant securing the highest number of votes during the campaign, which will extend from July 15th to August 26th, 1915, will be awarded first prize, and the other prizes will be awarded in the order of standing, respectively, to those contestants who secure the next highest number of votes. Complimentary ballots will be issued during the campaign, and published in each issue of the Advocate, and these, too, will be added to the votes secured by each contestant on subscription business. At the close of the contest, three prominent citizens of unquestionable integrity will act as judges for the purpose of reviewing the conduct of the contest, and deciding the winners. Neither the publishers of the Advocate nor the Every Woman's World will have anything to do with deciding the winners of the Contest. The names of the judges will be announced in an early issue of the Advocate.

Two Periods of the Contest

The contest will be divided into two periods, the first period, extending from Thursday, July 15th, to Thursday, August 5th, and the second period extending from the latter date until the close of the contest on Thursday August 26th. The vote schedule in the first period of the contest will be that published elsewhere on this page, and the vote schedule for the second period will be twenty per cent. less. The distinction between the vote values of subscriptions is made for the purpose of encouraging contestants to bestir themselves early in the campaign, and rewarding those who do good work in the early part of the contest. This arrangement will undoubtedly work out to the advantage of those who enter the contest without delay, and that is exactly what it is intended to do. It is simply a modified application of the old proverb that "the early bird catches the worm," and is designed to help the early bird to catch the worm. However the contest is open to every lady in the circulation zone of the Advocate and as one contestant has the same opportunity as another of getting an early start the arrangement is absolutely fair to everybody, and no one can have cause to complain thereof.

GUARANTEED REWARD

FOR EVERY CONTESTANT

10 per cent. Cash

Commission to

Non Prize-winners

Every worker in the Advocate Voting Contest will be a sure winner. We do not want any contestant to work for nothing, and to make sure that every lady who takes an active part in the contest will receive at least fair compensation for her efforts it has been decided to pay every contestant who continues actively in the contest until the end, ten per cent. cash commission on all the money she collects during the contest, in the event that she does not win a prize. Thus every element is removed from the contest, and every contestant is absolutely assured of a suitable reward for her efforts. With the assurance of certain reward in any event, no lady who desires to share the prizes to be distributed by the Advocate should allow anything to prevent her from entering the contest at once and starting to work without delay. No cash commissions will be paid to prize winners.

Rules and Regulations of the Contest

The contest will open on Thursday, July 15, and closes on Thursday, August 26th.

Any lady who is a resident in the circulation zone of the Advocate and who is not an employee of the Advocate may participate in the contest. Contestants are not required to be subscribers to the Advocate or Every Woman's World.

No entrance fee, nor expenditure of any kind is required to enter the contest.

Before any lady may participate in the contest, she must be nominated in writing, and must obtain receipt books, etc., for use in the contest from the Advocate.

Contestants may be nominated by themselves or by anyone else. Nominations may be made any time, before the date to be fixed for the close of nominations.

Votes will be given to contestants for subscriptions secured by or for them to the Advocate and Every Woman's World, according to vote schedules advertised from time to time and for complimentary ballots.

Contestants may obtain subscriptions anywhere either new or renewal and no distinction will be made between the vote values of old and new subscriptions in the regular vote schedules.
