LONDON, July 7.—The racial conflicts following the Jeffries-Johnson fight is the theme of general discussion in the British press. Varying opinions are expressed, but the universal admission is that Johnson's victory has made the problem for the United States much harder than before. The Daily Telegraph is an editorial says: "It is useless to hold up the hand of reprobation here: these things are brutal and vile, but behind them lies the absolute necessity to keep the negro race a little in check, for if it once gets out of hands there will be worse scenes under the Stars and Stripes than has ever yet been witnessed."

LONDON, July 7.—American and Continental inquiries for gold have effectively barred all prospect of an immediate reduction in the bank rate. The directors of the Bank of England this morning decided to maintain the 3 per cent. rate, although dealing on that basis at the present rate of exchange represents a loss. The engagement of two million dollars of Cape gold for Germany, reported this morning, is generally accepted as correct, and the recent placing of bonds here should enable New York to take considerable gold. There will soon be in the neighborhood of three million seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars available in the open market, and at least a portion is expected to be purchased for New York.

LONDON, July 7.—The June statement of the Board of Trade shows increases of fourteen million six hundred and twenty-four thousand dollars in imports and twenty-five million four hundred and eight thousand dollars in exports. The principal increase in imports was in raw materials, and manufactured goods showed the largest increase in exports.

NEW YORK, N.Y., July 7.—Without warning the Western Union Telegraph Company discontinued its service to-day to brokers in ten cities of this state and Pennsylvania. Executive officers of the company took the stand to-day that they could not discuss the company's policy. Officers of the New York Stock Exchange denied that the Cuth service was in any way instigated by them or that they had any knowledge of it.

NEW YORK, July 7.—Fifty thousand garment and cloak makers, of whom $400 are women, walked out this afternoon at the call of the International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union, which demands an eight hour day, an increase in wages, and a guarantee that contractors shall stand behind sub-contractors for wage payments.

SPRINGHILL, July 7.—If better order is not maintained here the military will be called out. That is apparently a certainty. In spite of the injunction of the court against picketing, there is apparently no prospect of observing the order. As one citizen remarked to-day, the court's order is treated not only with contempt, but with ridicule.

The B. I. S. and St. Bon's teams met in the 11th League Football Match, on St. George's Field, last evening. There was a fair audience present. A high wind prevailed blowing down the field. The B. I. It is by no means fair to spectators for members of a team not to turn up.

Rev. A. Sutherland Passed Peacefully Away at Toronto.

Secretary to Methodist Church in Canada—Deceased Was Held in Highest Esteem.

Toronto, July 1.—The Rev. Dr. Alex. Sutherland, missionary secretary to the Methodist Church in Canada, died shortly after five o'clock last evening, aged 77 years. On March 3rd last he was taken ill with influenza. This passed away, apparently, but was succeeded by pneumonia, from which he died. For an hour or two before his death he was quite conscious and talked with the members of the family.

The surviving members of the family are his widow, formerly Miss May Jane Moore, Dundas, Ont., and the following children: Mrs. Rev. Dr. Stevenson, of Nashville, Tenn.; Hugh Sutherland, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Ida McLean, of Calgary; Frank Sutherland, of Hamilton, and Mrs. Dr. Sheppard, Lynn, Mass.

The funeral will take place from Sherbourne Street Methodist Church at 10.30 Saturday morning to the Necropolis.

The Rev. A. Sutherland, D.D., who for many years had filled the onerous post of secretary of missions in the Methodist Church of Canada was a native of the province of Ontario, where he was born in 1833, and in his youth knew much of the hardship of pioneer life. Converted at 19, he entered the ministry two years later. His first field was thirty miles in length by eighteen in width, including about twenty preaching places every month.

Since then he was called to the pastorate of some of the largest and most influential churches in the denomination, including Hamilton, Toronto and St. James Street Church, Montreal. While in the latter pastorate in 1874 the first general conference of the Methodist Church was held, when he was elected general secretary and clerical treasurer of the missionary society, one of the most honorable and influential positions in the gift of the church, but involving extensive travel and onerous responsibilities.

Union of Methodist Churches.

Over twenty years ago he founded the Missionary Outlook, a paper which stands high among missionary publications of the day, and was its editor-in-chief ever since. Though in labors abundant in his own particular sphere, this did not prevent Dr. Sutherland from taking an active part in all questions affecting his denomination and society at large.

To Dr. Sutherland, more than any other man, belonged the success of the great movement which culminated in the union of the various branches of the Methodist Church in the Dominion. As secretary of the joint union committee he framed in a large measure the basis of union, and with tongue and pen he pleaded earnestly for its ratification, which was ultimately accomplished in 1883.

The numerous occasions on which the doctor was elected to represent his church in important assemblies indicate how his brethren delighted to honour him. Twice secretary and twice president of his own annual conference, he was appointed in 1871 fraternal delegate to the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States; in 1881 represented the great Methodist ecumenical conference, London, England, and was one of the joint secretaries of that august body. In 1886 fraternal delegate to the British Wesleyan conference; in 1894 fraternal delegate to the Methodist Episcopal Church south.

Enjoyed Literary Fame.

Dr. Sutherland's reputation for literary ability and scholarship was not confined to his own country, for in 1898 he was selected as lecturer on the foundation of the late Col. E. W. Cole, in connection with Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tenn. The course consisted of six lectures, the subject being "The Kingdom of God and Problems of To-Day." Later he delivered the annual "Fernley lectures" before the conference of the Wesleyan Methodist church in England. He was the first Canadian to be so honored, and it was only the second time that such an invitation had crossed the water. In 1879 the degree of doctor of divinity was conferred by Victoria University.

[The deceased was well known and highly esteemed in Methodist circles in St. John's, having visited the Conference here in connection with his office for a number of years, and delighted large congregations in the city churches with his able and timely sermons.]

The Carthaginian arrived at Glasgow this morning.
