Britain Will Seize the Dacia.

on the case of the Dacia, and set forth the accepted rule of International law in regard to the transfer of a vessel from a belligerent flag to a neutral one. Mercantile vessels flying the flaz of a belligerent are liable to be seized by an enemy, but the owner does not lose his title of pro-perty in the vessel until it is con-demned by a Prize Court. The sale of such a vessel by a subject of a belligerent to the subject of a neutral country and a transfer to the flag of the neutral is good in international law, if the sale is genuine. The British Government do not believe in the sented to any audience; the great Robgenuineness of the sale of the Dacia in Hood and his merry men, Red Rid-ing Hood, the Little Forest Elves and hold that its transfer to the American flag is a trick to avoid its seizure at dances, costumes and every thing sea. TO HAVE CARGO ADJUSTED.

The British steamer Desola, 11 days out from New York, bound for Glasgow, with a cargo of sulpheric acid and sulphate of ammonia, put into this port to-day. The ship experienced boisterous weather and the cargo broke adrift: the captain decided to make port to have matters adjusted, and yesterday bore up for here. Some slight repairs will also be made the ship. The Desola is 4,500 tons gross and was never here before. She has a crew of Chinamen. To agents for the ship have yet been appointed, meanwhile the captain is waiting instructions from the own-

RUSSIANS ADVANCING.

LONDON, To-day. Some Petrograd newspaper correspondents credit the Russians with crossing the Vistula River to the South and East of Plock. If this is true, military men say they must have a very large force and probably are in a position to threaten the left flank of the German army, which has been trying for weeks to force its way. trying for weeks to force its way through to Warsaw. In some quar-ters in London there is a tendency to believe that Germans soon will retire to their own frontier, in fear that a winter spent on their present lines of communications, which are declared to be bad, would result in a heavy less of men. Russian troops which rossed the Carpathians are reporte to have effected a junction, and when the plans for an advance into Transylvania are complete an attempt will be made it is said to invade Hungary from the North and East. Reports from the Caucasus say the Russians still are busy pursuing the remnants of the Turkish army corps which they
