The Halifax Road Race

Newfoundland has good reason to be very proud of her runners who took part in the Halifax Herald road race Saturday afternoon, not only on account of their brilliant achievement, but because of their splendid exhibition of grit and endurance.

The undertaking of such a venture in itself called for confidence and pluck; to have secured a close second place—which but for a misfortune might have been a first—and also the fourth, seventh and twelfth places on a strange track, and against a field of twenty-nine selected competitors, is a proud record; to have won the team prize from the Wanderers is a triumph.

Keen interest was taken by the community throughout the whole course of training of our runners, and on Saturday afternoon an immense crowd gathered round the Telegram notice board where news of the progress of the competitors was posted as received. When the final results came in, while there was a natural feeling of regret that a Newfoundland runner was not first, but everyone concluded the best man had won, and there was great jubilation over the fact that the Newfoundland boys had done so remarkably well.

The news received later through the Canadian Press that O'Toole had been put out of the running by an obstructing vehicle at the close of the race, was learnt, however, with surprise and considerable indignation, and while we cannot but say frankly that it was a most regrettable incident, we feel convinced that the resentment felt in the city cannot be greater than that of the citizens of Halifax, particularly as it robbed a visitor of the chance of winning at the most critical moment in the race and prevented the contest from being decided on merit.

Sufficient information is not yet forthcoming to understand fully how it happened that a vehicle obstructed the course just at a place where there should have been a clear run home. Under no circumstances would such a thing have been possible here, and it should not have been allowed to occur in Halifax. If we accuse those who had charge of the race of mismanagement, it is only because they have thrown themselves open to criticism, and while we do not for a moment suggest that an unsportsmanlike act was committed, which would be an unpardonable offence, it is most unfortunate that they have placed themselves in the position of having to make an explanation, and explanations as to why a contestant wins in a sporting event should never be necessary and in fact seldom proves convincing.

All honour to the boys who scored such a signal success! In a few days they will return to the city, and we feel certain that the reception which they receive will lack nothing of all that is meant by a real Newfoundland welcome.

Hope Springs Eternal

Of late there have been signs of returning vitality in the camp of the opposition after a considerable period of a somnolent lack of interest in public affairs, and the actions and expressions of some of the aforesaid heavyweights in the political ring might be taken seriously were they more original; as it is, they are only mildly amusing.

Trusting to the forgiving nature of the general public, or to its short memory in matters which have made, or rather have marred history, these gentry are trying to stage a comeback after their ignominious defeat, but their timeworn old tactics mislead but few, and their virtuous garb is somewhat too threadbare to conceal their blemishes.

It matters not that the impending crisis, of which they warn the public, is apparent only to themselves; they see nothing ludicrous in talking poverty and unemployment, when everything is prospering and the employment bureau is idle; in damning the administrative ability of those in power, they would have the public forget the fact that their own incompetency has been proven and punished, and they see nothing incongruous in being as thick as thieves to-day with those who yesterday were their sworn enemies.

There was a time when noisy demonstrations, flaming posters and claptrap could stampede the public, or even a few paid brawlers could intimidate the Legislature, but those days are past, and the aspiring politician who resorts to such methods to-day makes himself ridiculous and only hastens his political demise. That this is true was practically demonstrated in the last general election and again in the bye election in Bonaville Bay, and the wonder is that the lesson was not learnt.

If there is some question at issue, the decision may safely be left to the intelligence of the community at the proper time and place, for clearly it has learnt to distinguish between cant and sincerity, and to value at their true worth those who have found it necessary to become the trumpeters of their own virtues.

For the individual or the team that accepts defeat gamely there is every sympathy, but whines and protests arouse no feeling but contempt, and the blusterer is invariably an object of ridicule. Is it any wonder then that the public remain utterly indifferent to the jerebads heard in certain quarters, or are unmoved unless it is to laughter by the loud demands for another chance? And is it surprising that the people, whose lot is happier by far than it has been for years, refuse to allow themselves to be used as a battering ram to knock down the walls which have not fallen flat at the blasts of the brazen trumpets?

Magistrate's Court

A drunk in charge of a horse was fined $2 or 7 days.
 Two drunks were each fined $1 or 3 days and blacklisted.
 A carman for failing to stop his horse while passengers were alighting from a street car was fined $5 or in default 10 days imprisonment.
 A man convicted of selling cigarettes to a minor was fined $10.
 Fifteen delinquents were summoned for non-payment of poll tax up to 15th November last. They all made good the amounts with the exception of two. A bench warrant was issued for the arrest of the latter for failing to answer the summons.

Pies that mother makes are served with the teas and suppers at the C.I.A. Sale of Work, Col. umbus Hall, to-morrow and Wednesday.—Oct. 19, 11

Opening of the Industrial Fair

The Industrial Fair in the Prince's Rink, was opened this afternoon by His Excellency the Governor, in the presence of a large and representative gathering of citizens. Full particulars of the occasion will be given in to-morrow's issue.

Installation to Canonry

THE PRINCIPAL OF QUEEN'S INDUCTION TO THE STALL OF ST. PATRICK AT THE ANGLICAN CATHEDRAL.

Yesterday morning the Feast of St. Luke, the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Newfoundland, acting in his capacity as Dean, in the presence of three of his Chapter and a large congregation, installed as Canon and inducted to the Stall of St. Patrick, the Rev. N. S. Facey, LL.D., Principal of Queen's College.

The members of the Chapter in attendance were Rev. Canon Jeeves, (sub-dean), Rev. Canon Field, the student, together with the Vice-Principal and Mr. S. S. Horsley, Resident Lecturer. After the chanting of the psalms the Bishop, seated in his chair as Dean at the choir steps, received the Canon-elect, who was presented by the Sub-Dean and Canon Field. After the Bishop's mandatory letter had been read by the Registrar, the Canon-elect was solemnly installed and inducted having first duly made the customary declarations. Canon Facey then publicly recited the Lord's Prayer and read the first lesson, afterwards preaching the sermon, taking as his subject St. Luke, the Evangelist and Physician.

Dr. Facey is a son of the late Robert and Caroline Facey, and was born at Trinity. He received his early education there and at Bishop Field College, later proceeding to St. Augustine's College, Canterbury, where under the wardenship of Dr. Murray, he studied Divinity for three years. On the completion of his course he returned to Newfoundland and was admitted to Deacon's Orders by the late Bishop, Dr. Jones, on the Festival of All Saints' 1906. After serving as curate to the present Bishop at Heart's Content, Canon Facey, on his ordination to the Priesthood, became Incumbent of Change Islands. In 1911 he obtained leave of absence in order to pursue a further course of study at the Universities of Durham and Cambridge, where he ultimately graduated as B.A. and LL.B., having taken the Honours Courses in Law and Philosophy. Later he incorporated into Trinity College, Dublin, where he successfully passed the examination for the degree of Doctor of Laws.

During his stay in England the war broke out, and Dr. Facey interrupted his studies to serve as a Chaplain to the Forces, first in England and later in Belgium he saw much active service.

On his return to Newfoundland in 1919 the Bishop appointed him Principal of Queen's College. In this position Canon Facey has rendered a unique and distinguished service to the Church. His appeal for a new endowment for the College resulted finally in the sum of $50,000, this being largely subscribed in small sums by the Church of England people of the Diocese. He has added Vice-Principal and a Resident Lecturer; has trebled the number of students; and adjusted the courses of studies pursued at the College to make them correspond with those now general at the colleges in England. Queen's College in this way greatly benefiting from its association with Durham University.

In addition to his work at Queen's Canon Facey has rendered valuable work as Hon. Sec. of the Board of Directors of the C. of E. College, and as a member of the Executive of the Synod.

All of those who during the past six years have witnessed the growth and development of Queen's College and its work, will unite in rejoicing at the honor which the Bishop has conferred on its Principal.

Rev. S. D. Chown, D.D.

WILL BE PREACHER AT COCHRANE ST. CHURCH NEXT SUNDAY.

Last evening at Cochrane Street Centennial Church a most thoughtful and earnest sermon was preached by the Rev. E. C. French on the special theme of Thanksgiving, preparatory to the annual thanksgiving services to be held next Sunday. It was announced during the service that the Rev. S. D. Chown, D.D., of Toronto, who up to June last was the General Superintendent of the Methodist Church of Canada and Newfoundland, would be the special preacher at both Thanksgiving services next Sunday, when a special offering is to be made for the further reduction of the debt on the church.

Will Hold Investigation

An investigation into the circumstances surrounding the death of the wife, Beattie Barrett, whose body was found in Quill's Lake yesterday, will likely begin to-morrow. The post mortem examination, showed no marks on the body or disclosed no reason for committing suicide, and the conclusion is that she was temporarily insane.

TRIAL TO-MORROW—The trial of Gertrude Ashley, who is charged with perjury, takes place in the Supreme Court to-morrow before a special jury.

Wesley Church Notes

Yesterday was Sunday School Day, and there was a large attendance at all the services. Rev. C. H. Johnson, M.A., in the morning preached an excellent sermon on "The Authority of Jesus".

In the afternoon there was a grand rally of all departments of the Sunday School. Mr. Robert James, Supt., presided, and an address of welcome was well spoken by two little girls, Gertrude and Joyce Butler. It charmed everybody, and the chorus "We are little builders" by the Primary Dept. went splendidly. Misses Cox and Driscoll sang a duet very nicely, but the item contributed by 16 girls from the Methodist Orphanage was just delightful. The audience was greatly pleased and Misses Staples and Leslie could see that their training was appreciated.

Rev. S. J. Mathers, M.A., a specialist in "Young People's Religious Training" was introduced and had his own expert in holding the attention of all was soon demonstrated. His stories and clear voice will make him a popular speaker. The "Sunbeam Class" filled the choir gallery, thirty young ladies led by Mr. Pratt, sang "This is my Father's World," and later the Adult Men's Bible Class, number about sixty, and making a fine appearance almost filling the east gallery, rang out in fine style that grand old hymn, "Star of peace to wanderers weary." Its inspiring prayer for those in peril at sea was appropriate.

At the evening service, Rev. J. G. Joyce, B.A., delivered a very able discourse on "The Bible, Christianity's Inspired Book, the story of man's search and discovery of God and God's seeking and finding man. It was a powerful defence of the inspiration and authority of Holy Scripture, the pearl of greatest price and permanent value. That no prospector has ever discovered such a mine of wealth was fully proved as he quoted eminent authorities on the value of the Bible as an uplifting force not only in determining the conduct of the individual but the shaping of the destiny of the nations and the true secret of greatness.

Caribou's Hour of Arrival Uncertain

SHIP DELAYED ON ACCOUNT OF STORM.

According to a message received by the railway management from Capt. Stevenson of S.S. Caribou, the time of the ship's arrival is uncertain, as since Saturday last she has been bucking against a heavy N. N. W. gale. The latest message received was at noon yesterday, when Capt. Stevenson reported that the ship's progress was slow since Saturday evening to a raging sea. Her position was then lat. 47.44 N., long. 45.15 W., which is about 300 miles off this coast.

Lady Allardyce Presented With Three Flowers

A feature of the opening ceremony at the Industrial Fair this afternoon will be the presentation to Lady Allardyce of a De Luxe package of "Three Flowers" Toilettries. The package, which is a magnificent creation of the perfumer's art, is beautifully finished in Pink, White and Green, the Newfoundland colours, and was designed expressly for the occasion by Richard Hudnut, New York. Little Miss Mary Martin, daughter of Mrs. and Mr. E. E. Martin, who will be attired in an appropriate costume suggestive of "Three Flowers", will present the package to Her Excellency immediately after the Governor's opening address. The package is described as follows:

Lady Allardyce as a souvenir of the Newfoundland Industrial Fair, 1925, with compliments of "THREE FLOWERS."

Ayre & Sons Up-to-Date Showroom

ENTERPRISING FIRM INSTALLS ELABORATE SHOW CASES.

Keeping abreast of the times Messrs. Ayre & Sons have recently had installed in their show rooms, upon building, a number of display cases of the most modern design, and equal to the best to be found in the great departmental stores abroad. There are cases for the display of hats, ribbons, underwear, small articles, such as combs, pins, etc., and each case is specially designed for the particular class of goods which it contains.

From the artistic point of view the Show Room is a work of beauty. The advantage to customers is apparent and the old method of opening box after box has become a relic of the past, and customers need no longer fear putting assistants to trouble in making a selection. Stocks that would under the old system take hours to show can be seen at a glance, and there is no more need for the assistant to call attention either to the fact that such and such an article is in stock or to point out the good points of the article. The customers see for themselves. The cases are the product of Kent McClain, Toronto.

PEPYS BEHIND THE SCENES

Oct. 17th—Up betimes and abroad, the weather pretty fair, yet a great deal of dust about. Meeting Povey, he tells me how the new street coaches will be here soon, and their colour being red, methinks are like to be known as the "Crimson Perils." Much excitement everywhere about the Halifax Road Race and all pleased that our competitors should do so well. I am not so well pleased, however, concerning the sweepstakes I did buy this day, finding that one of these unclaimed had have the same time as a ticket I have and so pleased at the thought that I had won a prize at last, I did spend the half of it on a gift for my wife. But Lord, anon, learning my ticket to find it bears the wrong entry number and I have won no prize at all, but am rather money out. This a good lesson to me to be more observant in the future.

A great storm of wind all this night, so I home and do toast my feet before a great fire and read in a book of M. Arlens, to my great content.

Oct. 18th, (Lord's Day)—Lay long, being a mighty cold day and blowing hard. Indeed, at times 'twas so dark, that I did greatly fear a fall of snow. Anon up, and to dine, my wife and I, with the Poveys, in their motor coach, but the wind too high and the dust so annoying that we took little pleasure from it. Passing the new hotel, do notice how quickly it is being built, and do reflect the greatest credit to the workmen. Much discussion in the press concerning a name for it, but Lord, how better can any name advertise the country than the one it bears, being the Newfoundland Hotel; and to call it Fort William, or Sebastian or aught else, would be methinks a foolish thing.
