He has given orders that where it is established that Canada suffers as much from a lack of anthracite coal as the United States, Canada shall have its full allotment the same as the States of the Union.

The ex-Kaiser now tries to throw the responsibility for the war on Bethmann-Holweg, former Chancellor, and lagoe, the former Foreign Minister. There is little doubt that the investigation to come will fix the responsibility where it belongs. and the three gents named above will all be found guilty, with William Hohenzollern as the chief culprit.

So far as Avlmer is concerned the municipal pot has not as yet even begun to simmer, although nomination day is not very far distant. We do not think much opposition would he shown to the return of the present mayor and council for another term. There is at present one vacancy on the board which will have to be filled in any event.

The liquor trade is already very active formulating plant to do away with the present prohibitory law, which was made effective as a war measure, and will have to be sustained by a vote of the people after a Peace Treaty is signed. The suggestion that the Peace Conference would be in session for at least three months, brings forth a statement from the London Express, the proprietor of which is in close touch with Premier Lloyd George, that Europe could not stand the suspense for three months, during which demobilization and reconstruction would be held up. The Conference, it is expected, will hurry forward to an agreement of the main ms of the Peace Treaty, and leave less essential matters to internation al commissions.

Since the signing of the armistice there has been much discussion as to whether or not the Kaiser had abdicated. England was assured by Prince Maxmillian, then Chancellor, that he had done so before leaving Hills, for Holland, but that appears to be R. A F Toronto.
