An information was yesterday laid against William Williams, butcher charging him with fraud. He left the city last November and returned shortly afterwards. It is alleged that he secured meats valued at $1,100 from John S. Caverly by false pretences, representing that his book account was larger than they were and that his financial standing was in better condition than it was. The warrant was given to P. C. Smith and Special Louché to execute, but they were unable to locate Williams last night.—Times.

On Friday afternoon last a sleigh load of young men were driving through town, when some boys jumped on the sleigh. The men began throwing the boys caps off, when one of the boys returned the compliment. The stranger did not appreciate the joke, and jumping out of the sleigh, gave chase to one boy, who bolted through the door into Mr. Strachan's confectionery store, while his pursuer followed by way of the window. As soon as he gathered himself together, he ordered a new light of glass from Glovers hardware, and went on his way, inwardly blessing the small boy in general.

We have received from Mr. K. W. McKay, the popular and efficient Clerk of the County of Elgin, a copy of a little booklet compiled by himself, and published by the County Council. H. Coyne, B. A. There are a large number of illustrations of the oldest Court Houses, as well as the new ones, including the house of Lieut. Jas. Munro, erected in 1796 on lot 14, con. 5, Charlotteville, which was used as a Court House for the London District 1800 to 1892. It is a most interesting and valuable book, and will become more so, as the years go by.

An entertainment was given in Orwell on Wednesday of last week in aid of the Gold Watch Fund for the St. Thomas members of the Canadian Contingent who went to South Africa, among whom was trooper Sperry Clinch, whose home is just west of Orwell. The receipts were $6.20 and expenses were $6.50 according to the official returns. The programme was good, being furnished largely by talent from St. Thomas and the object was a worthy one. The only way we can account for the small attendance is, that no notice of the entertainment was put in THE EXPRESS, and consequently very few knew of it.

Mr. John A. Stewart, who resides near Belmont, held one of the largest and most successful auction sales on the 29th inst. that has been held in this section for some time. Messrs. Our Corinth correspondent writes:—In church on Sunday last a very interesting incident occurred, which seemed like a revival of the burnt offering of the old Jewish dispensation. Instead of a lamb being placed on the altar as an offering it was the note given by the building committee for the erection of the new parsonage, which had lately been paid. While the note was burning Rev. L. W. Reid stated that every dollar of indebtedness on the parsonage stable and fence had been wiped off, and all the congregation did rejoice.

Mr. Stanley McKewen Brown, special war correspondent for the Mail and Empire will give his illustrated lecture in the opera house on Monday evening, March 11th, under the auspices of the Collegiate Institute. Mr. Brown has been greeted with crowded houses wherever he has been, and has beyond all other correspondents, received complimentary press reports. While at the front he was wounded and still carries the bullet in his thigh as a relic. His lecture is illustrated throughout by the Edison moving military pictures, the same as was exhibited at the military band concerts in Massey Hall, Toronto, and were so much praised by the Toronto audiences. The Toronto World says:—"In Massey Hall, on Saturday night, a splendid audience listened with rapt attention to one of the most interesting lectures ever delivered in Toronto. It was by Mr. Stanley McKewen Brown, the war correspondent, and his subject was "With the Boys Through Africa," the affair was a great success." The Niagara Falls Record says:—"It was one of the most successful entertainments ever held in Niagara Falls." We look for a crowded house to greet this lecturer, who was with the first contingent from the time it left Quebec to the battle of Paardeburg. His descriptions of the battles of Sunnyside and Paardeburg alone are well worth the price of admission.

The music store will be missed by many of our musicians, but all will be glad that Mr. Brown's abilities as a salesman have been so highly recognized.

The idea of having an "Old Boys' reunion in Aylmer this year has again been revived, and if a good committee of citizens take hold of it we see no reason why it should not be a grand success, and a most enjoyable occasion for everyone. There will be cheap rates from every direction to Buffalo on account of the Pan-American and this will be a very material item for those living long distances away. The idea is to have the re-union during the week of our fair here, which is another good point, as they could meet all their friends here on these days. We should be pleased to see some one take the matter up and push it to a successful issue.

The Hon. John Dryden, Minister of Agriculture, has introduced his bill in the Provincial Legislature, for the encouragement of the beet sugar industry. In doing so, he has been particular to protect the interests of the farmers, by inserting a clause compelling the factories to pay them a fair price for the beets, viz., $4 a ton the first year irrespective of percentage of sugar and $4 per ton for a 12 per cent beet the second and third year, with a proportionate increase in price for beets of a higher percentage of sugar. The total amount of bounty granted is to be $75,000 a year for three years, to be paid at the rate of 1/3 cent per pound the first year, and 1/4 cent per pound the other two years. Should the amount of sugar produced extra more than the sum mentioned, the amount is to be divided pro rata between the factories producing same. In case of dispute as to the per centage of sugar in the beets, the matter is to be referred to the analyst of the Ontario Agricultural College, or such other persons as the Lieutenant Governor in Council shall name, and his decision shall be final.

The eighth annual convention of the Baptist Young People Societies and Sunday schools of Elgin, was held in the Centre Street Baptist church, St. Thomas, on Friday last. There was a large attendance from nearly all parts of the county, and the convention was one of the best and most successful ever held. The church was handsomely decorated for the occasion. Mr. Chas. Clarke of this place led the song service in the afternoon session. Mr. Stewart read an address of welcome to the visitors, to which Mr. Miller made a suitable reply. D. gave an excellent address in the theme of "The B. Y. P. U. as an educative force."
