Charged with Forgery.

Detective B. B. Allen left this city last night on an important mission—to attempt to overtake John Walker, an ex-agent of the Grand Trunk Railway, who is wanted for forgery. Walker is alleged to have raised the face of a note belonging to the company from $50 to $150, cashing it for the latter amount. He was employed for some time at Clandeboye as agent of the company. Last night he started from Lucan for Montreal and word being received in this city, B. B. Allen started in pursuit with a warrant issued by Squire Smyth. He expected to overtake his man at Toronto, but up to this afternoon had not arrived.

A Disreputable Practice.

Disreputable Practice.

For some time past a number of lads are been making themselves generally disprecable at and about the vicinity of Christ burch and the Wellington Street Methosist Church. They indulge in the practice lining the walk and making insolent rearks to persons entering their place of orship. During the hours of service they terfere with the conveyances in the horseds and on Sunday space gradees in the Rev. Thomas Cosford, the veteran of 51 years service in the ministry, took the chair, and introduced the speakers of the evening. Rev. E. B. Lanceley, Colborne Street Church, gave a practical address. He was followed by Mr. McIntyre, who had a most cordial welcome. He expressed his satisfaction at seeing so large a congregation, and added that, though a comparative stranger as yet, he had little doubt that they would get along happily together, as his predecessor had told him that the Askin street congregation were a kind and considerate people. Rev. G. W. Henderson, of Wellington Street Church, also spoke on the relation of pastor and people. The choir contributed two selected pieces to the evening's enjoyment, and Mr. Doggerel gave a solo which was highly appreciated. It is needless to say that the seasonable refreshments were voted excellent. Mr. McIntyre and his family have had a most auspicious settlement.
