Caustic Comment.

Indications That Brisson Will Be Elected President.

Many Persons Perish by Avalanches in

Said to be Sinking.

Avalanches in Spain.

MADRID, Jan. 16.—Avalanches have broken over several villages in Austria, and many persons are said to have been killed.

Lord Randolph Churchill Sinking.
LONDON, Jan. 16.—The bulletin issued by Lord Randolph Churchill's physicians at 10:25 this evening says that the failure of the heart is very marked and that the patient's weakness is increasing.

British Cabinet in Council.

LONDON, Jan. 16.—A Cabinet council was held at noon today. Sir William Harcourt, Chancellor of the Exchequer, presided, Lord Rosebery being absent owing to the death of his nephew, a son of Lord Lecon-field.

Terrorized!

LONDON, Jan. 16.—The Times correspondent in Pekin telegraphs: "There are riots and looting in the province of Shan Tung and Pe Chi Li. The mission stations are believed to be safe, but the missionaries would be wise to retire to the coast."

Bogus Dollars.

LONDON, Jan. 16.—The Central News correspondent in Madrid says: A sensation has been caused by the discovery that 24,000,000 spurious Spanish silver dollars are in circulation. The coins are of the full mint weight; many are even slightly superior to the standard. The Spanish officials say that the dollars are produced in France and America.

Warm Work With Abyssinians.

ROME, Jan. 16.—The Government has received telegrams of the gravest character from Massawa, indicating that the situation is not as hopeful as has been officially stated. Official telegrams have been received stating that the battle with the Abyssinians under Chief Ras Man-gascia was renewed on Jan. 14, resulting in the defeat of the Abyssinians, who were pursued by the Italians. The Abyssinians lost several hundred men, including several chiefs and several under chiefs. The loss of the Italians during two days' fighting was twelve men.

The French Crisis.

BERLIN, Jan. 16.—In commenting on the French President's resignation the Tageblatt says: "His fall is a great loss. It concerns Germany and all other friends of peace, as his successor possibly will seek to divert the attention of the people to foreign questions. It behooves Germany to keep her powder dry."

LONDON, Jan. 16.—The Duke of Orleans, chief of the French pretenders, left London with his suite today for Dover, where he will hold himself ready to start for France in case political developments favor his cause.

PARIS, Jan. 16.—M. Brisson held a council and discussed the availability of several candidates in an informal way, but they separated without having taken a vote.
As things look now M. Brisson's election seems a certainty.

The conference of senators and deputies in the Palais de Luxembourg finally dissolved shortly before 8 o'clock without taking a vote. In consequence of the refusal of M. Waldeck Rousseau to be a candidate the Union Republicans and the Union Progressists have put forward as their choice M. Felix Faure. This leaves Brisson and Faure the probable candidates. According to the latest estimates M. Brisson will obtain 350 votes on the first ballot of the National Assembly tomorrow.

ROME, Jan. 16.—The Vatican is worried by the sudden changes in French affairs.
The Observateur Romano says it is deplorable to see French Socialists and Radicals so successful in their schemes, and asks, at the end of a pessimistic article, "Will they be wending?"

The opinion tonight is that the main struggle will be between Felix Faure and Henri Brisson, and that a dark horse is likely to run ahead of either. It is not believed that the election will be made on the first ballot.

THE HARTLEY CASE REVIVED.

Serious Charge Preferred Against the Accused Woman's Counsel.

WOODSTOCK, Ont., Jan. 16.—At the police court today Thomas Brown, barrister, of Norwich, was called to answer to a charge of attempting to persuade Louis Henry Ling, an important witness in the Hartley murder trial, to leave the country and not to give evidence for a reward. F.
R. Ball, Q.C., represented the crown, and Samuel G. McKay the defendant.

The crown called two witnesses, Ling and his brother, to prove that on the 15th and 11th of October last Brown visited their place to induce Louis Henry Ling to go away to the United States and not to give evidence.

Another unimportant witness was called named Hussey, which closed the case for the crown, and an adjournment was asked for by the defense which was granted until Wednesday next at 10 o'clock.

In Congress.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 16.—The debate on Senator Hill's amendment to the Urgent Deficiency Bill in reference to testing the constitutionality of the income tax, occupied most of today's session and ended in the rejection of the amendment by an overwhelming majority. The Urgent Deficiency Bill finally passed.

Already several members have in preparation bills authorizing the laying of a Hawaiian cable under the patronage of the United States.

The Dairyman.

Continuation of the Western Ontario Convention.

Canada Complimented by a Leading Wisconsin Dairyman.

Quebec Profiting by Lessons from Ontario—The Most Valuable Equipment.

STRAITFORD, Jan. 16.—The Western Ontario Dairyman's convention resumed last evening with an increased attendance over that of the afternoon. Mayor Monteith delivered a short address of welcome, to which the president replied.

A. F. MacLaren, on behalf of the association, presented Mr. Miller, their inspector, with two handsome arm chairs. Mr. Miller briefly returned thanks.

Mr. John Gould, of Ohio, gave a brief address on "Some of Our Principles of Dairying."

C. H. Everett, president of the Wisconsin Association, in speaking of the dairy, said that Canada had the reputation of making the best class of cheese in the world. He paid a high tribute to Prof.
Robertson, who was doing so much good work to build up the dairy interests in Canada.

Hon. Thomas Ballantyne spoke of 28 years' experience in dairying. The only branch of farming that paid today was the cheese dairy. He spoke against sour milk going home in cans. In breeding cows he advised them to breed for a purpose. If for the dairy, breed for fat.
Nothing was so profitable today as dairying. You find that grain does not pay, cattle do not pay, but dairying has always paid.

Prof. Chapais, assistant dairy commissioner for Quebec, in a brief address, stated that in Quebec they were working on the same lines as those adopted in Ontario. "And we have prospered," he added, "so much that we have extended butter-making a little more than even Ontario has done."

Prof. Robertson, Dominion dairy commissioner, was of the opinion that the most valuable equipment of a dairyman was a clear head and a good mind. He spoke of the cheese industry, he said that we exported $16,500,000 as the product of the dairy last year. Of this $16,500,000 was in cheese and a little over $1,000,000 in butter. The needs of the dairyman were next touched upon. Habit of thinking clearly on the problems of his own business, fund of exact information, and need for persistent hard work, were the essentials.

The convention then adjourned to meet at 9 o'clock today.

Wednesday's Session.

The second day's meeting of the association opened with a largely increased attendance in the city hall. The receipts for membership exceeded those of the large meeting at Ingersoll last year.

This morning Prof. Fletcher, of Ottawa, addressed the convention on the subject of infectious diseases, and gave valuable information as to their extermination.

Mr. C. H. Everett discussed the subject of breeding, feeding and caring for swine.
At the afternoon session John Gould took for his subject "All-the-Year-Round Care of the Dairy Cow."

Prof. Dean, of Guelph, gave the results of some experiments in cheese making, and his remarks, together with a paper by Prof.
Vanarsdale in support of the Babcock tester, gave rise to considerable discussion as to the value of rich and poor milk for cheese making purposes.

she will go in response to invitations of White Ribbons. She will visit some of

THE MONTANA HORROR!

Fifty-Seven Persons Known to Have Perished.

BUTTE, Mont., Jan. 16.—At 10 o'clock this forenoon the known number of dead was 47. This list will undoubtedly be increased when the debris is removed. Of the dead thus far recovered 26 have been identified.

Basley Danford, died tonight. Many others cannot recover. The total loss will be lished were discharged.

who has been on trial for over a week for the murder of Mary La France, his mistress, on Aug. 21 last, was found guilty this evening and sentenced to die in the electrical chair at Clinton State Prison during the week beginning March 3.

Presbyterian Prosperity.

TORONTO, Jan. 16.—Seven or eight Presbyterian churches held their annual meeting tonight. The year was fairly prosperous in most cases, but in the case of St. Andrew's (Rev. D. J. Macdonnell, pastor), there has been a considerable falling off of membership and revenue during the year; in fact, of an increased expenditure.

In Labor Circles.

Large Gathering of Unemployed Men in Montreal.

Strong Language Used by the Deputation Who Wait On the Mayor.

"Shall We Have Starvation or Anarchy?" —A Demonstration in Quebec
—The Trolley Riot.

MONTREAL, Jan. 16.—About 4,000 unemployed workmen were at the city hall this morning, and a deputation, introduced by Wm. Darlington, interviewed the mayor. Darlington, who is a prominent labor leader and organizer, stated that he had been asked to organize a physical force association. Three hundred Anarchists could be mustered in Montreal just now.
The mayor appointed Friday next for a public meeting to discuss the question.

QUEBEC, Jan. 16.—Unemployed workmen held a large meeting at Champlain market today, when resolutions were adopted asking work from the municipal and Provincial authorities.

The demonstration, which included 3,000 men, was the third of its kind that has taken place in the city within the last few weeks, and it shows the condition of affairs in Montreal. Thousands of workmen are being thrown out of employment by the closing down of the Canadian Pacific shops, and many of the men who have families to support have grown desperate.
There would have been serious trouble today if it had not been for some cool heads among the leaders. Finally a delegation of about 30 men was selected to interview the mayor and the vast crowd remained outside.

A strong guard of police was on duty on the building, but hundreds of the unemployed entered and packed the corridors, waiting to hear what the mayor had to say to the delegation. R. Oumet, who acted as spokesman for the delegation, reminded the mayor that there had been two other demonstrations of thousands of unemployed around the city hall. They had been told that work would soon be provided for them by the city. The men had waited patiently, but in vain. They were growing tired, and they wanted to know, without any further parley or delay, whether they were to work or not.

William Darlington, a prominent labor leader, followed. He said that the workmen of Montreal had arrived at such a condition today that they had been forced to ask themselves whether they had a right to work, or, in fact, a right to live. There were those who denied that poverty and hardship and want prevailed to a large extent in the city at present. But they were wrong. Misery and wretchedness existed to a considerable extent, many cases of death by actual starvation had been brought to his own personal knowledge. The doctors gave certificates that they had succumbed to pneumonia, or consumption, or some similar complaint, but the real cause was starvation, lack of food and necessary medicine.

He would tell the mayor that men were not going to lie down peacefully to die from starvation in a country where there was plenty of food and many others were living in luxury. If the council refused to give the unemployed any assistance in the way of providing them with work, he would not like to be answerable for the result. If through their being refused work they were driven to use guns and dynamite, they would not be to blame. He could assure his worship that an army of 500 Anarchists could be raised in Montreal in a few hours. He knew for a fact that many men had lately applied to be enrolled in the labor organizations for the avowed purpose of using force to oblige those who could do it to give them employment. The question of the moment was: "Shall we have starvation or anarchy?"

The mayor expressed his sympathy with those who were out of employment. He pointed out, however, that many of them who passed as unemployed were not in need of work. They labored all summer and saved enough money to keep them all winter. The city had done its best to give employment.

A requisition was presented to the mayor, who will call a mass meeting on Friday in the Board of Trade room.

The leaders threaten to repeat the demonstration if something is not done.
The situation creates great excitement.

QUEBEC, Jan. 16.—The local union of journeymen bakers have decided to join the K. of L. in a body and will form a separate assembly of the order.

THE TROLLEY RIOT.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Jan. 16.—The third day of the battle between the trolley companies and their employees resulted in a slight advantage for the companies. Three lines out of the 48 tied up were operated under police protection, but the ranks of the strikers are still intact. Practically all the lines of the Brooklyn trolley strike today. The public as usual was the greatest sufferer. The great army of residents of the city who are engaged in business in New York had much difficulty to go to the bridge and ferries. The elevated roads were unable to carry the crowds.

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—A crisis is at hand in the Brooklyn trolley strike.
Mayor Schieffelin issued a manifesto last night saying if the strike was not settled in three days by the roads and the men the city administration would seek to take effective measures.

THE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETIES.

STRAITFORD, Jan. 16.—The West Middlesex Agricultural Society directors elected

Adelaide, Thomas Bogart, Archibald Campbell; Caradoc, W. A. Thomson, James Ferguson; Lobo, John McPherson; Metcalfe, J. W. Bryan, Robert Brown; Strath-roy, James Cox, James Healey. David Evans was reappointed secretary and treasurer.

Mayor Kennedy's Majority 48.

TORONTO, Jan. 16.—The majority recount was completed this afternoon, Judge McDougall declaring Mayor Kennedy's majority to be 48—3 more than first announced. It is said that Lawyer Walbridge, acting on behalf of Mr. W. F.
Sexton, will contest the election of Mayor Kennedy on the ground of corrupt practices.

occurred on Jan. 13 and 14 with the Abyssinians amounted to 120 killed and 90 file.

THE HENDERSHOT MURDER.

Chief Justice Meredith to Preside at the Elgin Assizes.

TORONTO, Jan. 16.—Chief Provincial Detective John Murray returned yesterday from St. Thomas, where he has been engaged for the past fortnight on the Hendershot murder case. The trial of the accused will take place at the Elgin Spring Assizes, which open at St. Thomas on Tuesday, March 5. Chief Justice Meredith will be the presiding judge. Mr. B. B.
Oster has been retained to prosecute the accused.

The defense is already figuring upon a postponement of the trial until the Fall Assizes, but the crown will resist any application of this nature. The evidence is mostly circumstantial, but is closely corroborative of the theory of the crown, and the manner in which it has been marshaled and presented shows that the authorities have been fully alive to their duty.

Anedee Chatelle, the murderer of Jessie Keith, of Listowel, will be tried before Judge Armour at Stratford on March 26.
Should the counsel for Clara Ford succeed in having her trial postponed next week until the Spring Assizes, Lancaster Boyd will try this case on April 30.

has three weeks in which to get to New York. He is pretty sure to win the wager.
