PANIC IN THE PIT

Chicago Operator's Corn Corner Nearly Drove Shorts Crazy—Tragic Feature of a Slump.

Chicago, May 4.—A panic, the first real one since Phillips cornered the market, occurred among shorts in May corn on the board of trade yesterday. Price fluctuations were the most violent in years. Having seen their losses grow heavier and heavier with each succeeding day for some time, traders who had guaranteed to deliver May corn to Phillips made frantic efforts to get it. The price went from 55 to 58 cents, 4½ higher than Thursday's close, in a few minutes. For an hour shorts bid 58 cents or close to it.

Then Phillips let out 600,000 bushels at prices ranging between 57 and 58 cents. It was thought for a moment that he was about to unload, and the market broke to 53 cents without a check. The drop disposed of a number of "tailers." Under 57 cents, Phillips sold nothing. In consequence prices reacted sharply when traders realized that the end of the corner was by no means at hand.

The sale of a seat is recorded on the New York stock exchange for $70,000. The previous highest authentic record is $66,000.

A TRAGIC FEATURE.

New York, May 4. — A tragic feature of the slump in the stock market yesterday was the sudden death of John Kee, 55 years old, in the brokerage office of Jacob Berry & Co., at 54 Broadway. He sat close to the ticker, and was listening intently to the quotations that were being read off. When the decline became severe Kee turned pale, and uttering a low cry, fell to the floor. He died in a few minutes. The manager of the brokerage office, said: "Kee had been on the right side of the market up to the time of the break."
