

KINGSTON PASTOR NEW MODERATOR

Dr. McGillivray Unanimously
Elected by General Assembly—
Union Big Issue.

KINGSTON, June 2.—At the meeting of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, which convened for the fourth time in Kingston tonight, Rev. Dr. Malcolm McGillivray, of Chalmers Church, Kingston, was unanimously elected moderator. Four other names were presented, namely, Rev. Dr. John Neil, Toronto; Rev. Dr. D. D. McLeod, Barrie, Professor Baird, of Winnipeg, and Rev. Dr. John Springer, Montreal.

In his sermon Rev. Dr. Herdridge, the retiring moderator, elicited several outbursts of applause, notably when, referring to the war, he said: "We must drive into oblivion these who prosper upon the wrongs of others. We can't all serve in the trenches, but we can all serve in the ranks of national truth and honesty," and also referring to the drink problem, he said: "We do not believe that prohibition will bring the millennium, but what Russia has done with her vodka, what France has done with her wine, surely we can do with the saloons."

Fight Over Union.
There is likely to be a hard fight over the question of church union, the unionists declaring that they are going to fight the attacks of the minority to the end. So far the committee has not decided on the form of resolutions to be presented to the assembly. There will be no compromise. The question is expected to come up this week.

The report on finances which was presented tonight stated that while some congregations had reached, and in some cases exceeded, their increased allocations for 1915, the average ratio of giving was lower than it should be. The board recommended that a budget of $1,500,000 be accepted for next year. The total receipts for 1914 are $880,000, as compared with $879,572 the previous year. The deficiency on the budget of 1915 is $615,322.

They took her to the hospital where she stated that people standing near her and talking to her took her life. TUG AND SANDSUCKER SEIZED OFF BRIDGEBURG BRIDGEBURG, June 2.—Custom officials here have seized the tug Major Symonds and sand sucker Pennsylvania, owned by the Niagara Sand Corporation of Buffalo. The craft are valued at $50,000.

The seizure was made under a Canadian war regulation providing that foreign-owned boats shall report to custom officials when they arrive in Canadian waters. The penalty for violation is seizure and confiscation. Collector of customs, James Lawson, will hold a hearing on the case later.

HYDRO OFFICIAL THREATEN G. T. R.

Ready For War as Result of Business
Loss to L. & P. S.
[Special to The Advertiser.]
TORONTO, June 2.—There may be a clash shortly between the Hydro Electric and the Grand Trunk. The trouble arises out of the Port Stanley-London line which is being electrified. Several men prominent in hydro matters were in Toronto yesterday, and said that the hydro would not take the initiative in starting a fight with the Grand Trunk, but that the hydro was prepared to "hit back" if the G. T. R. started something. It has been threatened to take the coal business from the Port Stanley line, and run it over the Rondeau-Chatham line. The hydro men here today claimed that the line would pay without the coal traffic.

Sir Adam Beck refused to talk at all about the matter. "I am not worrying," he stated. Hydro men will say very little, but they are watching the next move of the G. T. R.
In addition, it is reported that hydro-radicals will be at once undertaken with a view to better serve the territory surrounding Stratford, and giving competitive access to the business of the Canadian Pacific Railway, the Michigan Central and the Port Huron-Quebec.

MACKENSEN IN DANGER OF SUFFERING UTTER DISASTER

His Army of One Million Holds Narrow Neck of Land on Which Russians Are Closing From Two Sides.

[Canadian Press.]
LONDON, June 2.—2:55 a.m.—The situation of the Germans across the San River is such that the alternatives are either a brilliant success or utter disaster, says the Petrograd correspondent of the Morning Post.
The correspondent explains that Gen. Mackensen has at this point a million men dependent upon a narrow neck of territory, not seven miles wide, on the San for their only communication with their base. Their front is within eight miles of Moselska, which is their immediate objective, a station on the main line of the railway to Lemberg.
Both flanks, the correspondent continues, are being attacked by the Russians, who are gradually closing in on the narrow neck of land running from Jaroslavl to the River Lupa, which alone is available for communication with the German rear.
"Gen. Mackensen," the correspondent concludes, "has dashed in to gain at any cost a point on the railway line behind Przemyśl and join hands with the Germans operating on the front from Przemyśl to the great Dniester marshes, and either a remarkable temporary success of the extremely daring manoeuvre or a crushing disaster must follow within a brief period. The Germans are fighting on three fronts, north, east and south, with their communications to the west seriously threatened. We do not yet know whether the German attempt to save the situation by a frontal attack on Przemyśl to relieve the pressure on the main German forces across the San will be successful."

STRONG ATTACKS, SAY AUSTRIANS.

VIENNA, via London, June 2.—10 p.m.—The official statement issued by the Austrian war office tonight reads as follows:
"The Russians have renewed their strong attacks against the allied troops on the eastern bank of the San. Desperate attacks everywhere have been repulsed with heavy Russian losses.
"On the northern front of Przemyśl the additional fortifications have been stormed and we have maintained the conquered ground.
"South of the Dniester our attacks are successfully progressing. Hostile positions between Stry and Drohobycz were stormed yesterday.
"Strong Russian forces which yesterday attacked our position near Solotvina in south Galicia, suffered severe losses. They retreated, and, at some points, took to flight.
"Besides the booty mentioned in the German communication as having been captured during the month of May from the Russians, we took 180 ammunition wagons and a quantity of other war material, such as 8,500 rounds of artillery ammunition, 5,500,000 cartridges and 2,500 rifles.
"In the Italian war theatre all the undertakings of the enemy have been unsuccessful. The bombardment of the plateau of Lavarone, Folgaria and the Carinthian barriers, with a great expenditure of ammunition, has caused no material damage to our fortifications. No important fighting has taken place on the frontiers of Tyrol or Carinthia. On the coastal frontier an enemy attack on the ridge was repulsed with heavy Italian losses."

SIR JOHN FRENCH ASKED FOR MORE CANADIAN TROOPS

Begged That Second Division Be Sent as Soon as Possible.
[Canadian Press.]
MONTREAL, June 2.—How anxious Field Marshal Sir John French was to get more Canadians after the great showing of the first expeditionary force at Langemarck is told in a letter from Lieut.-Col. J. J. Garrick, M.P., intelligence officer with the contingent. Col. Garrick also mentions that the Patriotes are now a part of the Canadian force. Hitherto they were part of a British division.

The colonel says:
"Sir John French, after the Langemarck battle, expressed the greatest anxiety to secure any further Canadian troops that were available and at once cabled to Lord Kitchener that he was sending me over to see him about this matter and urging that no efforts should be spared to get our second division over. I found Lord Kitchener very cordial, and after my first interview with him he took the matter up personally with the admiralty and pressed it with such energy that in a very few days all arrangements were complete."
Col. Garrick says the losses in the Patriotes were made good at the expense of the Canadian division and the recommendation of Prince Arthur of Connaught and Gen. Lambton this unit was placed under the command of Gen. Alderson.

LONDON TIMES BARRED

ST. CATHARINES, June 2.—Owing to its anti-Kitchener attitude, the London Times has been excluded from the reading room of the public library. "Indulgence is not unfair" was the criticism of W. J. Robertson, chairman of the committee, who introduced the resolution. Another member of the committee stated that a substitute would be recommended at the next meeting, but "not one of the Northcliffe publications."

WIFE MADE FREE DOCTOR MCGREGOR

Governor of Michigan at Last Takes Up Case of Londoner.

APPEALS TO JURORS
Many Facts Brought to His Attention Tend to Prove Innocence.
LANSING, Mich., June 2.—After many weary months of waiting, Dr. Robert A. McGregor, formerly of London, Ont., now serving a life sentence in the Michigan State Prison at Jackson, in connection with the Sparling poisoning case at Uby, has been accorded a glimpse of freedom.
Today, acting under instructions from Governor Ferris, who has interested himself in the case, Executive Clerk Austin sent out letters to each of the jurors who served at the time of McGregor's conviction asking them to present views as to the guilt or innocence of the imprisoned physician.
Renewed interest in the case has been awakened largely through the efforts of the former Londoner. For months she has written and traveled to various parts of the state where she believed evidence was to be had which might clear her husband's name. Following her visits, petitions containing scores of names, many of them men prominent in political affairs, have come to the governor's office here, all asking that the chief executive interest in the case.
Before leaving on a short trip east today, Governor Ferris announced that while it is yet too soon to predict a favorable action in the case, many facts have been brought to his attention which would tend to establish Dr. McGregor's innocence. However, upon his return he will take up the matter again and be in close touch with the executive believe that a parole will be granted, shortly.

Since 1912 Dr. McGregor has been an inmate of Jackson prison. He has been a model convict, according to Warden Simpson, and in his position as superintendent-in-chief of the prison hospital has done much to earn the respect of the Jackson prison officials.

When the 13th Dragoons were organized, he transferred to them, and also held a commission in the 8th Hussars at Montreal. He is a veteran of the South African war, having seen service in most of the important engagements with the Canadian Mounted Rifles. On coming to Ontario, some four years ago, he became affiliated with the 27th Lambton Regiment, and later was made senior major, which rank he now holds.

Active in Relief Work.
Since coming to Stratford Mr. Massie has been prominent in military matters, interesting himself particularly in the collegiate cadets. Clinton Keach Meets Tragic Death at Thamesville—Jumps Off Moving Train.
[Special to The Advertiser.]
THAMESVILLE, June 2.—Coming from Chatham to spend an afternoon with his wife and eleven-month-old child, Clinton Keach, aged 23, met a tragic death at the station here this afternoon.
The young husband and father had been working for Everett & Pickard on the cement bridge at Chatham, but owing to the rain today was off for the afternoon. He boarded the mixed Wabash-Grand Trunk train to visit his young family, and when the train reached the Thamesville station at 5 o'clock attempted to leave it before it stopped.

Owing to the slippery ground he went under the wheels. His left leg was taken off between the ankle and knee and his right leg was broken above the ankle.

Dr. Fraser, who was quickly summoned, had the young man removed to

AUSTRIANS DRIVEN FROM MONTE NERO; ALTITUDE 7,000 FEET

UDINE, via Paris, June 2.—3:15 a.m.—The occupation by the Italians of Monte Nero, which is at an altitude of 7,000 feet and lies northeast of Caporetta and six miles to the northwest of Tolmino, is taken by military men here to indicate a continuation of the Italian plan to press on the Austrians north of Gorizia, on the left bank of the Isonzo River, and threaten them in the rear with a view to finding less resistance at Gorizia.
It is believed that the Austrians understood their danger, as it is asserted they did all that was possible to repulse the Italians from Monte Nero, but were compelled to retire after sustaining heavy losses.

ADVANCE BEYOND STORO.

ROME (via London), June 2.—11:25 p.m.—The following official communication issued by the Italian war office:
"On the Tyrol-Trent frontier no fighting of any importance has been reported. Our troops advanced in the valley of the Giudicaria and occupied Storo, and pushed on until they were near Condoio, linking up with the strong Alpine detachments, which had made a descent upon the Chies River from the rugged valley of Caffaro, to Valmondoio."
"On the Carnia frontier from the head of the Raccolana Valley we harassed by an efficacious long distance fire attempts of the enemy to build a bridge over an Alpine torrent beyond the frontier, on the northern slope of the Predil. The enemy's artillery replied, without result, to our outposts of offensive reconnaissance sending beyond the head of the Val Dogna, we captured some enemy stores. The bad weather, which prevailed throughout the whole of the day prevented more extensive operations."
"On the Friule frontier we have solidly occupied the ridge of Monte Nero, on the left bank of the Isonzo, and about ten kilometres (six miles) to the north of Tolmino. On the afternoon of the 31st the enemy tried to dislodge us from the occupied localities, but by means of violent counter-attacks, but was everywhere repulsed."

ITALIAN FLEET SPENDS DAY TRYING TO FIND AUSTRIANS

While Away the Time Destroying Newly Installed Semaphore and Wireless Station Along Enemy's Shores.

ROME, June 2.—Announcement was made at the ministry of marine today that the Italian fleet spent all of yesterday in cruising off the Austrian coast, without sighting the Austrian fleet. The statement follows:
"Yesterday our fleet cruised the entire day near the Dalmatian archipelago, without sighting the enemy. While waiting, our ships destroyed a newly installed semaphore and wireless station on the island of Lisas, which had been re-established after the bombardment by the French fleet last November."
"Our ships also destroyed the observation station north of the island of Curzola."
(Signed) TEANO DI REVEL,
(Chief of naval staff).

OFFICIAL REPORT.

Rome, June 2.—The following statement was issued today at the headquarters of the general staff of the Italian army:
"The body was taken to Henry Bros.' undertaking parlors."
"Over Eagerness Responsible?"
It is believed that Keach's death was due to his great haste to reach his family as quickly as possible. The train on which he came home passed the station, and after proceeding about a mile, he jumped on a switch to allow the passengers to dismount. Instead of waiting for this he attempted to leave the coach while it was moving.

WAS MAN CRUCIFIED EITHER SERGT. ELLIOTT OR PTE. WILLIAMS?

[Special to The Advertiser.]
BRANTFORD, June 2.—So far as can be ascertained in the city, the supposed Brantford medical man who, according to the story of Pte. Barrie, of the 13th Royal Highlanders, was crucified by the 2nd Prussian Guards, is either Sergt. Tom Elliott or Pte. James Williamson. Both were members of the Medical Service Corps, and neither has been heard from for some time and as neither has been officially notified as killed or wounded, it is suspected that either one or the other has been the victim of this German outrage.

Pte. James Williamson resided with his parents at 140 Cayuga street, and his people have not heard from him since April, when a service card was sent from France.

Sergt. Elliott was a member of the Royal Army Medical Corps, and until the war broke out was a member of the Brantford hospital staff. He has not been heard of since the first news of crucifixion by the Germans was made public April 21, when he was awarded word from him in vain, and his mother, on Lyons avenue, has not been notified of any casualty, and knows nothing whatever of his whereabouts. Elliott was a Scot by birth and had served two years in the old country before coming to Brantford. This latest story has put a pessimistic tone to the fact that his friends have heard nothing since early in April.

WAS TROUBLED WITH CHOKING SPELLS AND SHORTNESS OF BREATH

When the heart becomes affected, there ensues a feeling of a choking sensation, a shortness of breath, palpitation, throbbing, irregular beating, smothering sensation, dizziness, a weak, sinking, all-gone feeling of oppression and anxiety.
Many men and women drag along with weary step, and become worn out and haggard, when otherwise they could be strong and healthy if they would only take some doctors but they have failed. Washington Government, justified the sinking of the Lusitania in a public address there were broad intimations that through the German Embassy he might be invited to leave the country.

DON'T WASH YOUR HAIR WITH SOAP

When you wash your hair, don't use soap. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.
The best thing to use is just plain mild soap, oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get it at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.
Simply moisten the hair with water, and rub in a tea-spoonful of this all that is required makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, easy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

Miss Blanche Rose, a well-known actress, who darkened her grey hair with a simple preparation which she mixed at home, in a recent interview at Chicago, Ill., made the following statement: "When I was a young girl, I can darken their grey hair and make it soft and glossy with this simple recipe, which they can mix at home. To a half pint of water add 1 oz. of bay rum, a small box of Orlex Compound, and ¼ oz. of glycerine. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost. Apply the hair twice a week until it becomes the required shade. This will make a grey haired person look 20 years younger. It is also fine to promote the growth of hair, relieves itching and scalp humors and is excellent for dandruff and falling hair."
