FINAROTAL

Bellevue Castle, on the outskirts of Berlin, has become she favorite resort of members of the royal family. The aged Dowager Empress takes her daily walks there. There seems little life in the tottering gait, little vitatity in the wrinkled, care worn face. Yet her vanity is still boundless, and no man has taken her portrait for over thirty years, a face which explains the surprise of foregruin's who purchases groups of the impartal family and find the hoary widow dooking soundly and find the hoary widow dooking soundly and then the part of the engages Her Majesty's attention—the follows of the great-grand-children. A part of the park has been laid out far shells use, and here, true to the Hohenzollern blood, they play "soldiers in peace." The eldest Prince Frederick William, the ruler of Germany in the days of some future Bismarek, now 6 years old, is commander-in-chief, and fully impressed with the importance of his position. A few days ago he saked his mother to have a fort built for his samusement, but he was compelled to content himself with a guard-house instead. Here he orders one of his brother's stand watch, salute him as he passes with a little wooden gun in regular military fashion, and relieves him after duty by brother No. 2.

At other times he drills them and, dressed in his ministure uniform, demands unconditional obedience on the part of the junior princes. It is amusing to see the perfection with which the commands are executed and hear the story of water over used upon any stage. It is amusing to see the perfection with which the commands are executed and hear the story of water over used upon any stage. It is amusing to see the perfection with which the commands are executed and hear the story of water over tank containing the largest many departments. New Moonlight's teamers Bristol and Pilmusing to see the perfection with which mmands are executed and hear the son-soprano of the commander-in-chief, crous soprane of the commander-in-chief, the high-sounding language when a stomach is too far forward or a foot out of place at "Right dress!" The youngest boy is just out of the cradle; still he toddles about in his own peculiar way, and gives promise of a future leader. The father appears among them often and takes command, degrading the eldest son to the ranks for the time being. But this he accepts with pride, desirous to show his own proficiency. He will be well drilled at 10, when all royal princes receive the rank of first lieutenant. Then his command will be genuine.

A Gloomy Prespect. d—I'm afraid, my dear, that this theatrical entertainment is likely to wrove a bore, Wife—It may, John; but, for heaven's each act don's pick up your hat and go out.

No person should go from home without a ottle of Dr. J. D. This Cordial has gained for itself a widered reputation for affording prompt relief our all summer complaints.

A Great Favor,
Dumley—I say, Brown, as a great favor, would you mind putting your name on the Brown (dublously)—Why, I s'pose so, Dumlay. Where will you make the note payable?

Dumley—Anywhere you like, old man;

FOR OLD PEOPLE!

In old people the nervous system is weakened, and that must be strengthened. One of the most prominent medical writers of the day, in speaking of the prevalence of rheumatic troubles among the aged, says: "The various pains, rheu-matic or other, which old people often "nplain of, and which materially disturb ir comfort, result from disordered neives. There it is in a mishell—the medicine for old people must be a nerve tonic. Old people are beset with constipation, flatulency, drowsiness, diar-them, indigestion, rheumatism, neuralgia.

These diseases are of nervous origin. Paine's Celery Compound, that great nerve tonic, is almost a specific in these disorders, and by its regulating influence on the liver, bowels, and kidneys, removes the disorders peculiar to old age. Old people find it stimulating to the wital powers, productive of appetite, and promoter of digestion.

Sold by druggists. $1.00. Six for $5.00. Bend for eight-page paper, with many testimonials from nervous, debilitated, and aged people, who bless Paine's Celery Compound.

Next, by Messrs. OLIVER, COATE & CO., at their Mart, 57 King-street East. These lots are the remaining parts of east half Lot VIII on plan of Town and are situated upon the gently rising slope on the northern side of the town which commands an unrivalled view of the city on the opposite side of the river, of the rapids, of the shipping, of the site of the water-power canal and of the site chosen by the Government for the great Canadian Ship Canal for which tenders are now being asked by the Government.

These lots are less than half a mile from the C. P. R. station and shops, five-eigths of a BUFFALO AND RETURN $2.00. mile from the Postoffice and central point of the town, three-quarters of a mile from Good Sdays. Tickets at all Niagara River Plummer's superb new hotel, less than a mile from the Government Dock and Ferry, one mile from the International Dock and Ferry. A Company with Mr. Connec, M. P. P., President, is pushing the Waterpower Canal and Waterworks,

The Town will very soon be lighted by Electricity, and the Street-Car Company is negotiating for plant. The rapid progress of this Town has astonished the most sanguine. It has risen from a village in 1887 to a town of extraordinary life and prosperity in 1888. The streets of the Town are excellent, being in many places finely flanked with cobble-stone. A multitude of handsome buildings have gone up near this property and the proposed Park is just across the street (see Minutes of Council in "Algoma Pioneer"). No more desirable property for investors could be found. Rents pay from 20 to 40 per cent. on cost. All information can be obtained from Messrs. Oliver.
