The drygoods trade has brightened with the The drygoods trade has brightened with the weather. During Thursday and Friday there was a good deal of buying in the wholesale houses. The demnad is directed chiefly to blankets, fiannels and heavy goods. Several of the wholesale houses are busy stock-taking, the test of November being the end of their fiscal year. This being the case retailers may look out for bargains. New spring styles in prints (Manchester goods) are being shown and will be put on the road next week. They are, says an experienced drygoods man, "ahead of anything ever shown in this market for design and quality." Trade in groceries.

Trade in groceries has been quiet this week, owing largely to the continuous rain during the first three days of the week. The roads in the country were made almost impassable and had a direct effect upon the country dealers' trade Sales by the travelers are reported less than for several weeks past. There is not much change in prices. Sugar is quiet. Graundated stands at 7gc. for ander 15 barrel lots and 7gc. for over that amount; yellows at 5g, and brights at 6gc. to 6gc. Socks are light and raws are practically not to be had. A grade of crystal is being handled in place of raws. Teas are quiet. except in low grades, which are active. Coffees have lost spirit since the quiet settlement of Brazil's change of government. Green Rios are quoted at 2gc to 33c and green Javas at 25c to 33c. There is not much doing in them. Dried fruits have stiffened somewhat during the week. The New York prices for Valencia raisins have advanced 1gc and the advance reflected a secent rise here, quotations now standing at 6gc to 7c. Currants are also firm and in good demand. Sultana raisins are very scarce. Sales have taken place as high as 12c. Canned goods are in poor demand. Payments are moderate. Trade in groceries has been quiet this week. JAMES BAXTER. Suys notes, makes advances on warehouse re; seipts at low rates to turn corners.

Hides are plentiful, and if anything accumu Hides are plentiful, and if anything accumulating in the country. Prices here remain unchanged at $1.2c for No. 1 green and $1.2c for No. 2, but there is a disposition to put them down from 1.4c to 1.2c. Deniors point to the London and Hamilton markets, which are 1.2c below that of this city, and argue that they should pay no more than is paid at these points. Cured and inspected sels at 6½ for choice selected and 5c for No. 1. Sheepskins and lambskins stand at $1. Wool continues firm, under the influence of foreign markets, Super stands at 24c to 25c and extra at 30c. MEDIUM and poor butter are still accumulating, and for this there is searcely any outlet. For choice there is a steady demand; price is lower by two cents than two weeks ago. Eggs are moving steadily at 210 for strictly fresh and 17c for limed. Consignments of above solicited.
