James Eaton's

Our Public— When a human being has health, wealth and taking qualities he's a golden idol, but let disaster come—down, down, into the mire he goes—daily sinking deeper until the feet of the marching thousands trample upon him, and his once greatest standbys are now his greatest foes.

From all the different newspapers of Canada—hundreds of thousands of papers announce the failure of James Eaton & Co.

People of Toronto—tens of thousands of them; people of Canada—listen. You have traded at the James Eaton store for eight years; you have watched the wonderful progress made by this firm; you have believed in their integrity, their honesty, their principle; you have cared for and nursed the infant by your patronage, until to-day it is one of the largest of its kind in Canada.

James Eaton & Company, of 88 Yonge-street, Toronto, have not failed, nor have they assigned. True the management of this store, when taking a fresh hold last March, faced huge responsibilities, but as soon as our Mr. Eaton started with his great lead to foreign lands to deposit it where it belonged, one or two jealous rivals set their sails for revenge, and in the absence of our captain, who was to the best of his ability, trying to unload responsibilities from this store, which did not rightfully belong, one or two succeeded in temporarily crushing us, and also in drawing others detrimental to their own wishes.

If you still have confidence in the James Eaton store stand by it. If there is a failure the public will know it from our own lips when John W. Eaton returns from England. Meantime you'll find bargains at James Eaton & Co.'s that cannot be equaled anywhere.

Dr. Cook, V.S.J. of Sterling, has purchased the fast pacing gelding Mora Boy and intends sending him to the Woodbine. Being very speedy and winning every race entered in this year, except one, he promises to be something more than ordinary.

It was only a gallop for Lifeboat in the opening event at Brighton on Thursday to race in front of his field throughout. He won by two lengths from Little Man, who beat Blue Garter perceptibly favored on the stretch turn and at the last sixteenth pole he would have beaten Little Man for the place in the Lifeboat race.

Fred Foster, the Canadian owner of Dr. Rice, winner of this season's Foxcatcher at Saratoga Thursday, Bookmaker Riley (Toronto) took the bet on Dr. Rice, and $100,000 against $100,000. Dwyer did not care to bet, however, and Graham commented himself by taking from the public an additional $100,000.
