In the afternoon at 3 p.m. Miss Bell will address a meeting of the Women's Missionary Auxiliary. An offering for missionary work will be taken.

The new King Tut silks and silk waists.—Swift's.

The good work done by the Horticultural Society during the past three years can be greatly supplemented by people becoming interested in beautifying their lawns and streets. The cost is a mere trifle. It is not a donation for each member gets value for his one dollar fee in shrubs or bulbs, etc. To transform an unsightly place into a beauty spot, at a small cost, is quite possible and is a great contribution to the community in which we live.

For Friday and Saturday, 20% discount on all ladies suits.—A. Brown & Co.

Special services will be held in the Congregational church on Sunday to mark the 4th anniversary of the pastorate of Rev. T. DeCourcy Rayner. There will be special music. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will follow the morning service. You are cordially invited to attend these services.

We will have 10 special lines for Wednesday morning sale every week.—Swift's.

On Friday evening last, Rev. H.V. Workman spoke to the Reading Club taking as his subject the history of the Bible. Those present enjoyed a scholarly address and hope to hear Mr. Workman again next year. On Wednesday evening, May 9th, Dr. H. W. Hill, of the Institute of Public Health, Western University, will address the Reading Club on the subject "Abolishing Disease." All interested are cordially invited to attend this lecture which will be given at the High School. Dr. Hill says "I should like to have it understood that questions and discussion from the audience are invited, and time will be left for this purpose." This lecture will complete the work of the Reading Club for this year and will no doubt be one of the most interesting of the series.

Our stock of Used Cars is the largest in our history and prices are so low as to make walking expensive. Call and look them over.—Ray Morningstar. m4-2t

On Monday, April 30, 1923, the election of the officers of the Young People's League of the Methodist church, Watford, was held in the school room of the church. The following officers were appointed: hon. pres., Rev. W. K. Hager; president, Miss W. Harper; treasurer, Frank Roberts; pianist, Beatrice Edwards; assistant pianist, Florence Lovell. The four organized senior classes of the Sunday school, the Utopia, Tuxis, Gleaners and Fidelis, have control of, respectively, the literary and social, citizenship, missionary and Christian Endeavor departments of the League. The president of each class acts as a vice-president of the League. The "Echo" the annual paper of the League was read by Miss W. Harper and was very interesting and helpful.

Headlight—Walkers—Snapproof—Bib B Overalls, one fifth below to-day's prices.—A. Brown & Co.

Children's voile, organdy and gingham dresses, 75c, to $3.25.—A. Brown & Co.

A number of Watford business men and other prominent citizens assembled in the basement of the public library on Friday evening for the purpose of showing their goodwill towards ex-Reeve George Harper, who with his family moved to Calgary about the middle of this month. They took advantage of the occasion to present Mr. Harper with a well-filled purse. A number of short speeches were made regretting the departure of the family from town and wishing them health and prosperity in their new home. The move to the West is being made in order to see if the change in climate will improve the health of Mrs. Harper and their many friends hope that such may be the case.

The sale of ladies suits at Swift's all must be sold at less than wholesale, look them over.—Swift's.

"AN OLD FASHIONED MOTHER"
The drama, "An Old Fashioned Mother", drew a fair sized audience at the Lyceum on Monday evening, though both the play and the cause for which it was given deserved a bumper house. The young people of Zion church are to be complimented on the type of play which they selected combining as it did pathos and mirth. The interest was well sustained throughout, the parts all excellently taken, showing that much time and study had been expended upon them.

At the close of the program the young players and their friends were invited to spend a social hour at the Library where the members of the Board served a tasty luncheon. Afterwards in a few well chosen words Rev. Hosford, Dr. Savers, and Reeve Connolly congratulated and thanked the Young People's Society in the name of the Library Board.

Miss Florence Edwards (the Old Fashioned Mother) replying for the young people said that they felt they shared in the enjoyment and benefit of the Library. Mr. John Gault also made a few appropriate remarks.

The whole proceeds of the concert over $40, was presented to the Board by the players and will be spent in books in the near future, so that the influence of the work done by the Zion young people will still go on and they may well feel they have done something worth while.

CADET INSPECTION
Those who are interested in our Cadet Corps will have an opportunity of seeing us "in action" on May 14th, in the afternoon. You may then estimate the real advantages to be obtained by having such an organization in our school. Our operations have been hampered by rain and bad weather, but we will be glad to see you all on our annual Inspection Day.—Cadet.

Dr. G. L. Fenner, Detroit, Mich., motored over on Saturday and is spending the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Fenner. Rebe M. Fenner who came with him returned to Detroit on Monday via G.T.R.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kennedy, 6th line, have the sympathy of friends and neighbors in the loss they have sustained by the death of their son, John Edward, aged 4 years, which occurred on Friday, the 20th inst. Death was caused by sleeping sickness.

St. Mary's church rectory at Warwick Village, is undergoing extensive repairs and improvement. Mr. Thorne, of London, father of Mrs. Hagger, the Rector's wife, is doing the inside painting and decorating, and W. J. Moffat of Forest, is doing the outside painting. W. H. Brown, Watford, is doing the eavestroughing and putting in a bath room.

The regular meeting of the Warwick W. I. was held in the Town Hall Warwick Village, on Thursday evening, April 12th. The meeting opened with "The Maple Leaf" followed by prayer. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. The roll was called and answered by "Something on Poultry." An apron demonstration was given by each member bringing an apron and showing how it was made. Mrs. J. Robinson read a paper on "Birds of Ontario" which was very instructive. Miss Grace Thompson then favored the Institute with a couple of selections of music after which every one joined in community singing. The next meeting will be held on May 10th. The meeting closed with "God Save the King."

While shopping on Saturday Mrs. Hugh Donald discovered her driving horse, which she had placed in Mr. J. McLean's drive shed, Wyoming, quite ill. It was taken out and shortly after dropped dead in front of the bank.

Mrs. Emma Seymour, widow of the late Henry E. Seymour, who was G.T.R. station agent at Strathroy about 30 years ago, was found dead in bed at her home in that town by neighbors a few days ago.

DEATH OF COLONEL FRANK KENWARD
After an illness with paralysis extending over fifteen months, which was borne with remarkable cheerfulness and true christian fortitude, Col. J. Franklin Kenward passed to his reward on Friday morning, April 27th, at his home on Erie street.

Col. Kenward was one of the best known and most popular men that ever lived here. He was born in Warwick Village, Jan. 17th, 1849, and was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kenward. After receiving his education he taught in several rural school sections and about 35 years ago was appointed principal of the Watford public school, which position he gave up to establish the private banking firm of Thomas & Kenward of Watford in 1890. When the Merchants Bank bought out this firm Col. Kenward became attached to the staff of the chartered bank and shortly afterwards was made local manager, which position he held until a few years ago when he was placed on the retired pension list.

On Sept. 11th, 1873 he joined the 27th Regiment, St. Clair Borderers as a Private, and being enthusiastic in military matters was gradually promoted until he was gazetted Lieut.-Colonel in 1902 which position he held for several months and then retired from the regiment retaining his title.

As a citizen of Watford Col. Kenward had the progress and welfare of the village at heart and was always interested in the promotion of any scheme for the benefit of the place. He occupied many offices of honor and trust, being Reeve for several years, auditor, assessor, and member of the public school board for nearly a score of years, being several times honored with the chairmanship of the board. He was a member of Court Lorne C.O.F. and the Chosen Friends. For many years he was secretary of the East Lambton Agricultural Society, which position he held up to the time of his illness.

In politics he was a Liberal and in religion an Anglican, being a most enthusiastic church worker all his life. He took great interest in Sunday school work and held the position of Superintendent of Trinity church S. S. for 27 years. He held the office of churchwarden and sidesman a number of times, and was always ready and willing to fill any vacancy caused by the absence of others. He also filled the important office of lay reader of the parish. He was an active worker and at one time president of the Warwick township S. S. association.

The late Col. Kenward was married in 1874 to Miss Martha Eccles, of Warwick, who survives him. He leaves three sons, Dr. C. F. Kenward of Gary, Ind.; Dr. F. B. Kenward of San Francisco, Cal.; and Dr. E. D. Kenward of Lacom, Ill. He is also survived by three sisters, Mrs. F. Smith, Port Huron; Mrs. R. Clegg of London; and Mrs. W. D. Brock of Windsor.

The funeral took place Sunday afternoon and was one of the largest ever seen here. Service was held in Trinity church, many people being unable to gain admittance. People from distant parts of the county came to pay their last respects to a good and popular man. The rector, Rev. J. H. Hosford, M.A., had charge of the service and was assisted by Rev. T. D. Rayner, Congregational minister. The members of Havelock Lodge A.F.&A.M., of which deceased was a Past Master and Director of Ceremonies for many years, attended in a body. Interment was made in Watford cemetery. At conclusion of the church service the Masons took charge, and the beautiful burial service of the order was conducted by Rt. Wor. Bro. Rich. Williamson, D.D.G.M., assisted by the officers and brethren, and full Masonic honors given the deceased. The pallbearers were brother Masons, E. A. Brown, E. D. Swift, P. J. Dodds, C. Howden, J. W. McLaren and W. L. Miller.

Among those from a distance who attended the funeral were: Mrs. J. Thomas, North Branch, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith, Miss Peggley, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Phillips and family, Port Huron; Mr. Chas. Tanner, Sarnia; Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. R. Clegg, Dr. Frank and Mrs. Clegg, London; Mrs. W. D. Brock, Windsor; Mr. P. McDiarmid, Mr. R. McDiarmid, Dr. and Mrs. Winn, Alvinston; Dr. C. F. and Mrs. Kenward and family of Gary, Ind.; Dr. E. D. Kenward, Lacom, Ill.
