We are sorry to report Mr. Ernest C. Long confined to the house with a sprained back. Hope he will soon be well again. Mrs. Alonzo Wright gave a little birth-day party at her home one evening last week in honor of her grandson, Corey Wright. The relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sanford gave them a reception on Wednesday evening, Dec 1st leaving best wishes to Walter and bride.

The body of the late Precely Long, Bear River East, was bought here for burial Nov 28th. Much sympathy is extended to all sorrowing ones. One of our aged citizens in the person of Mr. Joseph Berry passed away at his home on Wednesday Dec 1st. Much sympathy is extended to his sorrowing wife. Messrs Ernest and Roy Trimmer Frank Doonoo, and Albert Wambolt are now engaged in the lumber works at West Springhill. We wish them all great success. Mr. Fred Cummings is again in the village but we are sorry on this trip he takes with him Mrs. Cummings and family. They will be greatly missed. Good wishes follow them to their new home in Middleton.

A SPLENDID LECTURE

(Digby Courier)

A large audience gathered in the court house last Monday to hear the lecture on "Astronomy," by Rev. Wm Driffeld. No matter what Mr. Driffeld lectures on he is always good, but when he takes a subject in which he has such a deep interest as the one he took on Monday he excels himself. His lecture was a delightful one and the ladies of the Canadian Woman's Club are to be congratulated on the success which crowned their evening's entertainment.
