Local Happenings

The "Upstreamers" Tuxis Boys are asked to meet this (Wednesday) evening (instead of to-morrow. The meeting will be in St. James' Church school room at 8.30 and a full and punctual attendance is particularly asked for.

Thursday afternoon, March 1st, about eighty ladies of Bridgetown and vicinity met in the Board of Trade room, and were entertained by Mr. Francis Graves and Mr. Humphrey of M. W. Graves & Co., Ltd. They passed bread, tarts, cake and pie—all containing their new apple product "Apple Delecto"—and also passed Evangelical drinks manufactured by this firm. Mr. Humphrey explained the different uses of this splendid article of food, and gave recipes for making bread, cake, pie, etc., containing "Apple Delecto". The Women's Institute extended a hearty vote of thanks to Mr. Graves and Mr. Humphrey for the pleasant time and assured them that they would give "Apple Delecto" a place in the pantry. "Apple Delecto" is now on sale in the different stores in the town. If you have not tried it in your cooking, we would advise you to do so.

ST. CROIX COVE

On Wednesday evening, Feb. 28th, residents of this place met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bradford Poole, the occasion being a surprise for our pastor, Rev. D. W. Dixon and wife. An enjoyable evening was spent and the amount of $20.10 contributed. It was regretted that through illness our pastor was not present as he and wife had been invited. After serving refreshments it was arranged that the company should go to the personage. So on Friday evening the air was made merry with the jingle of bells from twelve loaded sleighs en route for pastor Dixon's home, Port Lorne, where he was taken completely by surprise. A very pleasant time was passed. The presentation was made by Capt. E. Brinton, responded to by pastor Dixon and wife. Refreshments of cake, pie and tea were served, after which the company joined in singing "God Be With You 'Till We Meet Again", and "The Sweet Eye and Eye". All departed for their homes hoping that many such occasions would be ours to enjoy with him as our pastor.
