Facts are Stubborn Things

So is Bad Blood. The difference between them is that a fact is here to stay. Bad Blood can only stay until Burdock Blood Bitters is used, then it must go. It takes facts to prove this to your satisfaction, and we give them to you every time we catch your eye. Here is one of them. Don't throw the paper down, but read this letter from Mr. Fred Taylor, a detective of Winnipeg. We present his portrait, together with that of his little daughter, mentioned in his letter.

FATHER AND DAUGHTER.

ONE OF THE GALLANT 90TH BATT.

DEAR SIRS,—Having felt out of order for some time, and having no energy or appetite, blotches on legs, tumor on neck—arising from impure blood, doctors doing me no good, I was induced to buy some B.B.B. I was very much against patent medicines at the time, having tried so many, but after using two bottles I began to get better, and at the fourth bottle was completely well and around again. I believe in B.B.B. now, I tell you. I send you a photo of myself and little daughter, Lilly. B.B.B. cured her of nasty blisters which came out on her lips. Yours thankfully,

F. TAYLOR,
9 Stephen St., Winnipeg, Man.

SHE said to her grocer, not long since, "I bought three or four hams here a couple of months ago, and they were very fine. Have you got any more like them?" Grocer—"Yes, ma'am. there are ten of those hams hanging up there." "Are you sure they are all of the same pig?" "Yes, ma'am." "Then I'll take three of them."

A frequent source of accident is found in shafting. Great care should be used and a supply of Hagyard's Yellow Oil kept on hand in case of wounds, bruises, sprains, burns or scalds. It is the promptest pain reliever obtainable.

YOUNG man: I see you advertise a vacancy in your establishment. I should like a position where there will be a chance to rise. Merchant: Well, I want a man to open up and sweep out. You will have a chance to rise every morning at five o'clock.

The case of Mrs. E. A. Storey, of Shtland, Ont., is remarkable proof of the efficacy of Burdock Blood Bitters in headache. She writes: "For over forty years I was a martyr to headache, having severe attacks about once a week. Have now used three bottles of B. B. B. and have had no attack for four or five months."

FARMER PEASTRAW: Well, son, what did you learn at college? Son: I learned to fence for one thing. Farmer PEASTRAW: That's good; I'll get some nails to-morrow, and we'll have a bout.

BRECHAM'S PILLS act like magic on a Weak Stomach.

EXPECTING too much.—Benevolent lady: Well, sir, I have given you a good meal. Are you going away without saying anything? Tramp (putting his hat on): What do you expect me to say, mum? I'm no Chauncey Depew.

The single tax may relieve poverty, but as a remedy for painful ailments it cannot compare with Hagyard's Yellow Oil, the old reliable cure for rheumatism, neuralgia, croup, sore throat, lumbago, colds and inflammatory diseases.

"CONDUCTOR, why didn't you wake me up when I asked you? I am miles beyond my station." Conductor—"I did try, and all I could get out of you was: 'All right, Maria. Get the children their breakfast, and I'll be down in a minute.'"

"MRS. SMALL, this coffee won't settle," complained McWatty to his boarding house keeper. "Then it is in good company, Mr. McWatty," replied Mrs. Small, frigidly.

MANY suffer rather than take nauseous medicine; and this is not strange as the remedy is often worse than the disease. Sufferers from coughs, influenza, sore throat, or tendency to consumption, will find in DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY a remedy as agreeable to the palate as effectual in removing disease.

THE new nurse (vigorously): Com now, sor-r! wake up and swallow yer slavin' dose—its time.

MR. GOODSOL—"For a beggar you look rather respectable with glasses on." Beggar—"Yes, sir. I have ruined my eyesight looking for a job."

COLD, cough, consumption, to cure the first and second and prevent the third use Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, the never-failing family medicine for all diseases of the throat, lungs and chest. A marvel of healing in pulmonary complaints.

"HE is a very original boy, that son of yours. I think he is bound to rise in the world." "I don't know. It's a hard thing to get him to rise in the morning."

FATHERS and sons as well as wives and daughters need a purifying tonic medicine in spring to prepare the system for the hot season and drive out the seeds of disease accumulated in winter. B. B. B. has no equal as a spring purifier and costs less than a cent a dose. There is healing virtue in every drop.

LITTLE EDITH: Mamma, what's a poorhouse? Mamma: A poorhouse, Edith, is an imaginary place of papa's, where he intends residing next week.

Wistar's Balsam is the Best.
