

The excellence of the illustrations is striking, and in every feature the Christmas Journal is attractive and useful. By The Curtis Publishing Company, Philadelphia. One dollar per year ; ten cents per copy.

What would you do if war should be declared to-morrow with a European power? How would it change your home life, the lives of your brother and other relatives? How would it affect your business connections and business? What changes would it make in financial, city, state and national affairs? It is these interesting problems which a writer in the December Cosmopolitan has undertaken to sketch under the heading of "A Brief History of Our Late War With Spain," at the same time vividly describing the exciting scenes which would attend the opening of hostilities. This same number of the Cosmopolitan has an article on "The Well-dressed Woman" by Elsie de Wolfe, a contrast of the characters of Henry George and Charles A. Dana by John Brisben Walker, in another place "The Loves of Goethe," while Wells' story, "The War of the Worlds," which has been so widely read, reaches its conclusion in an unexpected way.

VALUABLE REMEDIES WORTHY OF ATTENTION.

Especially at this season are the tablets of "antikamnia and codeine," each containing $4\frac{3}{4}$ grains antikamnia and $\frac{1}{4}$ grain sulphate codeine, worthy of attention in the treatment of pulmonary diseases. This combination is a sedative to the respiratory centres in both acute and chronic disorders of the lungs. Cough, and in fact nearly all neuroses of the larynx are in the vast majority of cases, promptly and lastingly relieved, and often entirely suppressed. In the treatment of La Grippe and its sequelae, its value is highly esteemed. In diseases of the respiratory organs, pain and cough are the symptoms which especially call for something to relieve ; this combination does this, and in addition controls the violent movements accompanying the cough. To administer these tablets in the above conditions, place one tablet in the mouth, allowing it to dissolve slowly, swallowing the saliva. Exhibited in the grinding pains which precede and follow labor ; in the uterine contractions which often lead to abortion ; as well as in the nocturnal pains of syphilis, the results obtained are most satisfactory. In the various neuralgias, and in all neuroses due to irregularities of menstruation this combination affords immediate relief, and the relief is not merely temporary and palliative but in very many cases curative. In these last conditions, always instruct that tablets be crushed before taking.

To present the best thought in the whole range of living literature is the mission of The Living Age—and how well it has fulfilled this mission for over half a century its record fully testifies. Edited with a sound judgment and a keen literary instinct, it seldom fails to gather within its pages the most valuable expression and record of the world's progress and growth along every avenue of thought and activity, and continually grows in value with the ever steadily increasing stream of periodical literature.

The titles of a few of the papers contained in its latest issues illustrate the freshness, catholicity, spirit and value of this publication : "England and the European Concert," by James W. Gambier, R. N. ; "Woman's Place in the World of Letters," by Alice Stopford Green ; "The King of Siam," by B. A. Smith ; "Newman and Renan," by Wm. Barry, D.D. ; "The Dead-Lock in Austria-Hungary," by Austriacus ; "Paris in June, 1871," by A. J. Butler ; "Royalties," by F. Max Muller ; "The Growth of Caste in the U.S.," by Joseph Edgar Chamberlin ; "Recent Science," by Prince P. Kropotkin ; "Pascal," by Leslie Stephen ; "The Sphinx of Modern London," by F. W. Newland ; "The Lesser Elizabethan Lyrists," by Stephen Gwynn ; "The Sayings of Jesus" ; "Jean Ingelow" ; "Mrs. Oliphant" ; "A Great Country's Little Wars," with choice selections of fiction and poetry, including Kipling's magnificent "Recessional."
