COMMENTS FROM THE TRADE PRESS

American Stationer, New York: "Even a cursory examination of this important directory will convince anyone of the thorough manner in which it has been put together and of the value of the completed work. Mr Caspar is to be congratulated upon the eminent success of his great undertaking. He has produced a work which, if properly kept up from year to year, will be the standard."

American Bookseller, New York: "It is a manual for publishers, booksellers, newsdealers, stationers and libraries, indispensable to them all, is a most valuable compilation, exhaustive and complete. The information it contains is absolutely unique. It is a monument of careful, painstaking and accurate labor, and is as reliable as it is extensive."

The Publisher's Weekly, New York: "Certainly no other trade can boast of a more comprehensive directory than this."

Western Stationer, Chicago: "It is beyond all question the most complete work of its kind which has ever been issued from the American press."

The Newsmen, New York: "C N Caspar has just published the best and most complete, yet simple, directory of the news and book trade, that has yet appeared."

Stationery and Bookselling, London, Eng.: "All departments bear evidence of having been most elaborately and carefully constructed, and with remarkable accuracy and completeness."

"Part VI appears to be exceptionally well done, and under a severe test we have found it singularly complete and accurate."

The Nation, New York: "The execution is up to the standard implied in this homage to an unscrupulous bibliographer. We feel certain that so much well directed and intelligent labor will find its reward among those immediately interested in such a compilation."

Paper and Printing Trades Journal, London: "Caspar's Directory is certainly one of the most remarkable literary achievements of modern times." "Anyone who can appreciate it, will be simply amazed at the amount of work involved and the extent of knowledge displayed in the compilation."

Public Opinion, Washington, D C.: "It will astonish the reader, in looking over its pages, to discover how extensive and how diversified are the trade interests with which it is concerned."

The Evening Wisconsin, Milwaukee, Wis.: "Is a monument of patience and technical skill, and is of great practical value in many lines, and especially to the book trade, the world over."

Leipziger Correspondenzblatt, Leipzig, Germany: "We do not overdraw when we state that this American Directory surpasses in every respect, all similar directories in any other country."

The Bookmart, Pittsburgh, Pa: "Caspar's Directory places a perfect book store in the hands of every dealer and especially placing the dealer in small places on an equal footing with large cities."

The Literary World, Boston: "Caspar's Directory deserves not only the attention, but the praise and patronage of all business men in its field. It has been compiled with true Germanic thoroughness and enthusiasm by Mr. Caspar."

London Academy, London: "Altogether, the work is a monument of much well directed and intelligent labour."

Stationer and Printer Chicago: "A work that will be of great practical value to the trade."

Open Court, Chicago: "A most valuable working adjunct."

Author Boston: "A work of great usefulness."
