dence of taxation just as well as the sovereign Rowdes of New York themselves. The rates they levy on property are perfectly enormous. Take for an exon property me posterily enormous. Take for an example, the town of Hamilton, from which its municipality extracts a rate of three and six pence in the copany calculated on the rackrent. But turn demopound, believed Canadian Parliament. The motto there is " Nothing for nothing," and that member is there is received by his constituents who can procure for then the largest share of public revenue. Thrice happy days of Walpole, when an hon. member was content to take for his vote a consideration in hard cash, and so close the transaction! Modern corruption is more expensive. Each municipality claims as the price of its support through its member of the Government of the day the grant of a large amount of public money, or, at any rate, the loan of the public credit to guarantee what it may borrow Thus the public revenue is burdened with heavy debts, Thus the public relations is outdered with heavy debts and becoming inadequate, not for the legitimate exand necoming inductions, not for the legitimate exbing a whole community in detail with money raised from it in the gross, requires to be recruited by the imposition of new taxes.

MURDED .- The great crime of murder is becoming fearfully common in this country. Hardly a week passes in which we do not see, in some of our exchanges, an account of a fresh offence of a capital nature; and, we are sorry to say, this county contributes more than its full share to the dark catulogue. While one man from Victoria lies under sentence of Wm. F. Mott, death for taking the life of a fellow creature, an ac- E. D. Morgan, count is brought to us of the murder of a wife by her husband, within three or four miles of this town. A few days ago a man residing east of Lindsay beat | Peter Cooper, his wife with a piece of a rail untill she became in- Robt. B. Minturn, genible, in which state she remained for some time, Moses Taylor, and finally expired, giving birth to a dead child.
The wretch managed to get his two victims buried, and then decamped; but is to be hoped that he will tot remain long at liberty. As we are not positive soon his name we do not give it; but that the crime, ss ecorded above, has been committed there is no coult. And so we go on Murders by the knife are hecoming almost daily occurrences, and if the opinions expressed in our immediate locality coincide with those of the public at large, we can only believe the whole country is filled with indignation at the leniency with which murders have hitherto been, and continue to be invariably treated; and no wonder. The most atrocious criminals who without provoca tion, put their fellow creatures to a violent death, are looked upon with pity and sympathy, if not with positive admiration; and, in nineteen cases out of wenty, escape with an amount of punishment awardel to the dog-stealer. Crozier (who at the last assizes in Peterboro' was sentenced to death for the deliherate marder of Thompson) has, as was antici-pated, been reprieved, and is to undergo five years. Lindsay Advocate.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., July 28, 1858. S. W. Fowls & Co., Boston, - Sirs: - Nine years since I was attacked by that curse of all Diseases, Dyspeptia, which so affected me as to cause great oppression, fulness, and bleating of the bowels imaddiately after eating, accompanied with terrible pains in the stomach, often occasioning nausie, vomiting, acidity, and headache, together with general debility and suffering, altogether rendering life a burthen.

After having tried every known remedy without effect, and desparing of ever regaining my lost health, I was induced to make use of the Oxygenated Bitlers, the good effects of which were immediately visible on my health and system. Before using a whole bottle I was entirely sured; and I feel a pleasure in inducing all like sufferers as myself to make

TESTIMONIAL. Boston, July 19, 1857.

Messrs. J. EURNETT & Co.-I cannot refuse to state the salutary effect in my own aggravated case, of your excellent Hair Oil—(Coconine.)

For many months my hair had been falling off, Education. Particular attention will be given to the until I was fearful of losing it entirely. The skin upon my head became gradually more and more inflamed, so that I could not touch it without pain. This irritated condition I attributed to the use of various advertised hair washes, which I have since been told contained camphene spirit.

shown your process of purifying the Oil, I commenced its use the last week in June. The first application allayed the itching and irritation; in three or four days the redness and tenderness disappeared—the lly the advice of my physician, hair ceased to fall, and I have now a thick growth of new hair. I trust that others similarly afflicted will be induced to try the same remedy.

Yours very truly, SUSAN R. POPE. A single application renders the hair (no matter how stiff and dry) soft and glossy for several days. JONAS WHITCOMB'S REMEDY FOR ed by him in despair. In no case of purely Ashma-tic character, has it failed to give immediate relief, and it has effected many permanent cures. Within the past two years this remedy has been used in thousands of cases, with astonishing and uniform success. It contains no poisonous or injurious pro-perties whatever, an infant may take it with perfect safety.

[Letter from a Methodist Clergyman.]

WARDSBORO', Vt., May 12, 1857. Mr. Bunnett—I take great pleasure in briefly stat-ing the wonderful effects of "Whitcome's Remedy FOR THE ASTEMA," on my wife. She had suffered for years more than my pen can describe with the Spas-modic form of that terrible disease. I consulted numerous physicians of the highest celebrity to very little or no purpose. As often as ten or twelve times in a year, she was brought to the very gates of death -requiring two or three watchers sometimes, for several days and nights in succession. At times, for hours, it would seem as if every breath must be the last. We were obliged to open doors and windows in mid-winter, and resort to every expedient that affection could devise to keep her alive. At one time she was so far gone, that her physician could not count the pulse. At length I heard of your "Reme-dy"—it acted like a charm; it enabled her to sleep quietly in a few minutes, and nearly broke up the lisease. I keep it constantly on hand—and though it has not cured her, it has done wonders in the way of relief. I have never known it fail in more than one or two instances of affording immediate relief .-I am a Methodist clergyman, stationed here. I shall be happy to answer any enquiries respecting her case, and you are at liberty to make any use of the foregoing facts that will benefit the afflicted.—Yours truly, KIMBALL HADLEY.

Jonas Whitcomb's Remedy is Prepared only by JOSEPH BURNETT & Co., 27 Central Street, Boston, and Sold by all Druggists. One Dollar per Bottle.
