

ARTICLE 21Expenses

1. The Requested State shall make all necessary arrangements for and meet the cost of any proceedings arising out of a request for extradition.
2. The Requested State shall bear the expenses incurred in its territory for the arrest and detention of the person whose extradition is requested, until the person is surrendered.
3. The Requesting State shall bear the expenses incurred in conveying the person extradited from the territory of the Requested State.

ARTICLE 22Settlement of Disputes

Any dispute between the Contracting States arising out of the interpretation or implementation of this Treaty shall be settled by consultations or negotiations.

ARTICLE 23Entry into Force and Termination

1. This Treaty shall enter into force thirty (30) days after the date on which the Contracting States have notified each other in writing that their respective requirements for the entry into force of this Treaty have been met.
2. This Treaty shall apply to any request presented after its entry into force, even if the offence for which extradition is requested was committed before that date.
3. Either Contracting State may terminate this Treaty by notice in writing at any time and it shall cease to be in force on the one hundred and eightieth day after the day on which notice is given.
