

ANNEX A

- (a) Nuclear material, material, equipment and technology transferred between the Parties, directly or through third countries;
- (b) Material and nuclear material that is produced or processed on the basis of or by the use of any equipment subject to this Agreement;
- (c) Nuclear material that is produced or processed on the basis of or by the use of any nuclear material or material subject to this Agreement;
- (d) Equipment which the recipient Party, or the supplying Party after consultations with the recipient Party, has designated as being designed, constructed or operated on the basis of or by the use of the technology referred to above, or technical data derived from equipment referred to above. Equipment developed, designed, constructed or operated by the recipient Party independent of technology and equipment supplied by the supplying Party shall not be subject to this Agreement.
