

Order Paper Questions

The answer to Part 4 is: A medical report from the records of the treating physician is requested by the applicant in each case and accordingly is included as part of the documentation upon which medical advisers advance their recommendations.

The answer to Part 5 is: The treating physician is contacted by the departmental medical adviser if more information is required on the current status of the applicant's medical condition.

The answer to Part 6 is: There is, in the law, a three-stage appeal procedure which applicants may pursue if they wish. However, the minister may review those complaints which are brought to his personal attention.

The answer to Part 7 is: No.

The answer to Part 8 is: Canada Pension Plan staff medical advisers do not personally examine applicants. However, specialists in appropriate fields perform examinations at the request of the Canada Pension Plan when such examinations are felt necessary for recommendations to be made. Such special examinations are performed with the consent of the applicant and at the expense of the Canada Pension Plan Administration.

*THIRD NATIONAL PARK ON EASTERN SHORE OF NOVA SCOTIA

Question No. 782—Mr. Forrestall:

1. With respect to the answer to question Number 145, will the government now advise the House when the evaluation of the public meetings referred to will be completed?
2. Will the government advise whether there is an expiry date on the Memorandum of Agreement and, if so, when will the Memorandum lapse?

Mr. Len Marchand (Parliamentary Secretary to Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development): Mr. Speaker, the answer to Part 1 is as follows. The evaluation is being carried out in conjunction with the Province of Nova Scotia. No advice concerning the date of its completion is yet available.

The answer to Part 2 is as follows: The Memorandum of Agreement itself has no expiry date. The memorandum does suggest that certain tasks to be performed by a joint federal-provincial committee be completed and reported on within six months of the signing of the memorandum. The option to extend the time limit for this report is available to both governments.
