Sept. 23. 1935

Dear Mr. Morgan,

I have been making vain efforts to find out where you are, but I daresay this may perhaps reach you.

I am sailing in the "Antonia" on Friday next, and as I would like to see some of my friends without their having to make a pilgrimage to the boat sometime before 9 a.m. (standard time) I am coming to Montreal on Wednesday afternoon by the C.N.R. arriving about 5-15. I think my friend
