

Queen Victoria's Tribute to Her Dead Canadian Premier

For this Picture the Artist was honored with Personalittings from the Queen and H.R.H. Princess Beatrice at Windsor Castle.

This picture represents the QUEEN in the act of placing a laurel wreath upon the coffin of the late SIR JOHN S. D. THOMPSON, K.M.G., Q.C., M.P., P.C., etc., at Windsor Castle, Dec. 13, 1894.

Immediately behind the QUEEN stands her youngest daughter, PRINCESS BEATRICE, recently called to mourn the death of her husband, PRINCE HENRY OF BATTENBERG. On the extreme left of the picture stands SIR CHARLES TUPPER, High Commissioner for Canada, and at his side MRS. SANFORD, who, with her two daughters, represented the immediate friends of the deceased. Beside MISS SANFORD, and close to the pillar is LORD EDWARD PELHAM-CLINTON (Master of the Royal Household), he is the second son of the DUKE OF NEWCASTLE. The other side of the pillar is LADY SOUTHAMPTON (the lady in waiting). Beyond are the two Maids of Honor, the HON. JUDITH HARBORD and the HON. FRANCES DRUMMOND. On the other side of the PRINCESS is seen MISS McNEIL (woman of the bed-chamber, now
