When you have read THE YANKEE IN QUEBEC ask your stationer or bookman to send to the Emerson Press, 149 Broadway, New York City, for MY FRIEND BILL, of which the Book World says: "It is the best book of Light Fiction we have ever read"

Burton H. Albee, Editor of the American Stationer, says of "My Friend Bill." "It is fully the equal of David Harum in quaintness and far ahead of that popular book in the story told, which for plot and strength of the characters, has rarely been equaled in any modern novel. The child character 'Little Helen' is simply charming." Sir James M. LeMoine in commenting upon the book uses almost those exact words in speaking of "Little Helen."
