The conference decided to call for the organization of a salaries' committee in every district, which must report annually, also that ministers' salaries be paid monthly.

Chancellor Burwash of Victoria University, who has been en a visit to Japan, was given a very cordial reception. He was now, he said, "one of Dr. Griffin's bairns, being now superannuated." He had been 55 years in the ministry, and was nearing the end of his 74 years. His remaining days would be devoted to the service of the advancement of the kingdom of Christ. The conference would be grieved to hear that from a letter just received. his brother John would soon pass into the shadow. His strength was rapidly failing. Chance lor Burwash certified that he was a believer in answers to prayer and modern miracles. He quoted the case of an orphan child in the mission schoel in Japan who had been miraculously cured of what was regarded as an incurable disease of the eyes. "The day of miracles." he concluded, "has not passed."

A telegram of sympathy with Dr. John Burwash was ordered by a standing vote to be sent to him at Calgary. Rev. Dr. Duke, ex-president of the Bay of Quinte. Conference. was received as a member of the Toronto Conference. Wednesday, June 25
