

The Hallowe'en concert held in the Methodust Church of New Toronto proved to be entirely successful, the program of music, readings and games being greatly enjoyed by a large audience. Among those contributing to the program of entertainment was Miss Robertson, the well-known elocutionist.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and lux-uriant, remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revela-tion if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggiy and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An casier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, cost-ing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of muss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does so naturally, so evenly. You just damped a spongo of Cost brush with it and draw this thru your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and lux-
