

ANALYTICAL INDEX

A.

Abstinence, Total, Recommended by Pittacus, xxiv, 13; First society, xxiv, 70, 72, 77 et seq., 81, 91; Fraternal temperance societies, xxiv, 99 et seq.; In Canada, xxiv, 103 et seq.; "Seven Men of Preston," xxiv, 28c; In Australia, xxiv, 312; And life insurance, xxiv, 379; In Wales, xxiv, 466.

Acadians, A people of many virtues, ix, 17; French in patriotism and policy, ix, 17; Refuse to take oath of allegiance to Britain and are expelled, ix, 18; Their suffering, ix, 19; Manners and customs, ix, 119.

Adams, John, Member of committee to draft American Declaration of Independence, xx, 27; His advocacy of it, xx, 28; Secures business recognition for new Republic from Holland, xx, 38; Signs Treaty of Paris, xxi, 48; First American Minister to England, xx, 38; Elected vice-president of the United States, xx, 57; Elected president, xx, 57; Snubs Vice-president Jefferson, v, 15; xx, 58; Sends commission to treat with French Directory, xx, 59; Avoids war by treaty with new French Consul, xx, 61; A candidate for re-election, xx, 64; His death, v, 123; xx, 108.

Adams, John Quincy, His lines of descent, xx, 217; His birth, xx, 218; His qualities, xx, 219; Schooling, diplomacy and travel, xx, 221; Services in Paris to Independence, xx, 221; Appointed Minister to the Hague, xx, 223; His marriage, xx, 224; His post at Berlin, xx, 224; Returns to America, xx, 224; Elected State Senator, xx, 224; Chosen to United States Senate by Federalists, xx, 225; Massachusetts Legislature repudiates him, xx, 227; Selected for Russian Mission, xx, 228; Goes to London as Minister, xx, 230; Enters Monroe's cabinet, v, 88; xx, 231; Defeated for presidency, v, 130; xx, 246; Elected to Congress, xx, 249; Returns to Congress, xx, 259; His death, v, 216; xx, 260.

Afghanistan, Early anxiety regarding, iv, 30; Southern border annexed, iv, 32; Importance in North-West frontier, iv, 40-44.

Agriculture, instruction in, No specific agricultural instruction in schools of Germany, xxiii, 462; Canada prominent in agricultural instruction, xxiii, 462; The United States, Belgium, Denmark and Switzerland, xxiii, 463; Courses of study in agriculture in French and German schools, xxiii, 464; Plan of study, xxiii, 466; Pedagogical directions, xxiii, 466; Distribution of time, xxiii, 468; Agriculture added as optional subject to National School course in Ireland, xxiii, 101; National Board establishes the Model Farm and Garden at Glasnevin, xxiii, 101; National Board of Ireland establishes the Model Farm and Dairy near Cork in 1853, xxiii, 101; Agriculture made obligatory subject in upper classes of Ireland's rural schools, xxiii, 101; Instruction in agriculture provided for in schools of France in 1882, xxiii, 435; Agricultural schools established in Switzerland, xxiii, 256; Private farm schools organized in Cape Colony, xxiii, 375; Technical instruction in agriculture aided in South Australia in 1884, xxiii, 410; The College of Agriculture established near Adelaide, South Australia, in 1885, xxiii, 410; Agricultural instruction permitted in French schools in 1887, xxiii, 224; Special committee in 1895, recommends that agriculture be aided in public schools of Cape Colony, xxiii, 378; Queensland Agricultural College founded at Brisbane in 1897, xxiii, 416; Royal decree in Belgium lays special stress upon instruction in vegetable culture, xxiii, 436; Secondary school of agriculture established at Adelaide, South Australia, xxiii, 410.

Alabama Claims, The Alabama built in England, v, 300; Arbitrators at Geneva decide that Great Britain shall pay United States $15,500,000 damages, v, 333; xiii, 135; xxi, 238, 239; Escape of the ship from the Mersey the day before her detention was ordered, xiii, 134.