

lay before the stockholders, for their information, an exact and particular statement of the amount of the debts due to, and by the Company, specifying the amount of Bank Notes then in circulation, and the amount of such debts as in their opinion are bad, or doubtful; as also stating the surplus or profit, if any remaining, after deduction of losses and provisions for dividends. Provided that the rendering of such statements shall not extend, to give any right to the stockholders not Directors, to inspect the account of any individual or individuals with the Company.

Nineteenth.—If there shall be a failure in payment of any part of the sum or shares subscribed by any person or persons, co-partnership, body politic or corporate, the party failing in paying the first instalment of fifteen per centum, herein before required to be made, shall respectively forfeit five per cent of stock to and for the use of the said Company, and the stock shall be sold at public sale, for the behoof of the Company, and on failure of paying the other instalments, or any of them, the party or parties failing therein, shall forfeit five per centum, and the dividends unpaid prior to the time for making such payment, and during the delay of the same.

Twentieth.—The said Company shall not directly or indirectly deal in any thing, excepting Bills of Exchange, gold or silver bullion, or in the sale of goods really and truly pledged for money lent, and not redeemed in due time, or in the sale of stock pledged for money lent, and not so redeemed, which said goods and stock so pledged, and not so redeemed,
