

Jones' Falls is one of the most beautiful spots in Ontario. It is not only beautiful, but interesting and historic. The dam at the falls is a stupendous piece of work, and at the time it was built was the largest structure of the kind in the world. Read the size of it: four hundred feet long, three hundred and one feet thick at the base and ninety feet high. It is horseshoe in shape, and the mason work is most enduring. The locks, four in number, were cut through the solid rock, and each one lifts the boat twenty-two feet. At the top is simply fairy land. There are many nooks, bays and inlets, and pretty places which are taken advantage of by camping parties. No better fishing exists anywhere than there is in this locality. An empty string on a fishing journey is an unknown thing here.

Leaving Jones' Falls, "The Quarters" are entered. Here is where the headquarters of the construction staff were established. Sand Lake is next entered.

The next lake is Opinicon, or Wild Potatoe Lake. It is six miles long and two wide, and is literally covered with islands.

Passing through Chaffey's Locks, Indian Lake is reached. Its shores are high and rugged and the scenery wild. The steamer glides through a little isthmus and
