The Preston management is trying to get some good team for an exhibition game with the seniors at home on New Year's. If there is ice the seniors will play exhibition games next week, as follows: With London intermediates at London on Monday night; with Paris intermediates at Paris on Christmas afternoon, and with the Stratford seniors at Stratford on Friday night.

The Preston juvenile teams for this season number four, viz.: Beavers (last year's champions), Thistles, Thistles and Shamrocks. The Thistles and North Ends have joined forces this season, and will thus be able to put a strong team on the ice. The captains will form the management committee, meeting to appoint captains and draw up a schedule was held on Friday evening.

National Gun Club.

The National Gun Club will hold a bowl shoot on Christmas Day. The shoot commences at 2:30 p.m. All members are requested to be on hand.

Hockey Gossip

Torontos will lose a big squad of players this morning when eight of them take the train for the Maritime League. Kyle, Dunphy, Landers, Longfellow, Carmichael, Doherty, Walker and McGregor are the puck-chasers who are taking the journey. Several of these have signed to Toronto contracts and if they jump, as they say they will, Manager Ridpath promises to have quite a lot to say as to whether they will play N.H.A. again or not. John Cross, the Ingersoll coalender, will accompany them. Foyston and Marchand are the two who escaped the net. The former wants a chance with Torontos, and the latter expects to play amateur for one more year.

Upper Canada College and St. Andrew's

College both had practices yesterday, but only a few stragglers turned up, as most of the boys had rushed home to eat their Christmas dinner. Varsity were practically in the same predicament, and very few regulars were in uniform, but they will get down to regular workouts in a few days.

The O. H. A. championship season will open on Christmas Day, when Wlarton will meet Owen Sound on the latter's ice in a junior fixture.

T. C. C. will play Parkdale at 8:30 p.m. on Thursday in the opening junior game in Toronto in the O. H. A.

Payan, who played with the Canadiens in Toronto on Saturday night, stated that he would not play in Montreal this season unless it was on an occasional Saturday night. He will not sign a contract this season with the Canadiens, as he is not particularly anxious to play hockey this winter.

Frank Heffernan of the Torontos has received permission from the O. H. A. to play with Ottawa College team tonight in Peterboro.

Hyland, Barlett and Ridpath of the Parkdale team have been granted permission by the O. H. A. to play with the Canadian Kodak team at Collingwood on New Year's night.

A meeting of the O. H. A. executive committee will be held on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at The Telegram Building. All players' certificates must be in the hands of the secretary by that date to be passed by the committee. Any club in doubt regarding the qualifications of any player can have the matter settled at this meeting; otherwise it will be too late.

The Frontenac hockey team had its first practice last night on the open rink, as the covered rink in Kingston is not in shape for skating. The team meets Trenton on New Year's night and will take all the time left to get the boys in shape.
