Complete Separation From Great Britain is Boldly Asked For.

Dublin, Dec. 26.—The Sinn Fein victory over the Nationalists in the recent parliamentary elections predicted the highest hopes of the Sinn Feiners. It is believed that when the final count is made on Dec. 28 the Sinn Feiners will have won a majority of the Irish seats. In fact, before the election they had gained twenty-five seats because the Nationalists did not oppose them. The immediate purpose of the Sinn Feiners, according to one of their most prominent leaders, is to convoke an Irish Nationalist Assembly early in January.

The assembly would draft a national constitution for Ireland, which would be
