NATURALIST WINS CLOSING FEATURE

Tight Finish With Lanus in the Long Beach Handicap.

New York, June 21.—The Brooklyn Handicap will be run tomorrow as the feature race of the opening day of the Queens County Jockey Club's spring meeting at Aqueduct.

The spring racing season of the Metropolitan Jockey Club at Jamaica came to a brilliant end this afternoon with the eighth running of the Long Beach Handicap and five other well-balanced events.

The Long Beach was won by Naturalist, which placed himself at the head of the meeting's money winners by duplicating his success in the Excelsior. Away well on the outside, the Widener candidate quickly went into a lead which he held with difficulty at the end, where Fairbrother was driving him to withstand Lanus's challenge. The latter displayed his usual good form and provided game contention at the finish. Star Master followed them. Bally, carrying James Butler's colors for the first time this season, forced the early pace and showed a good effort. Straight Forward, a well-supported entry, was ridden by Kummer, a last-minute substitute for Enos.

Courtship Lands Handicap at Latonia

Latonia, June 21.—The Marshall Bros' Phoenix horse, Courtship, this afternoon scored over the bulky field of 14 than contested for the $5000 Enquirer Handicap at Latonia. B. J. Brannon's Ivan the Terrible gelding, St. Bernard, got the place, and J. B. Reppes' clever campaigner, Dodge, was third. The race was marked by much crowding and interference, and it was due to Hanover's success in keeping Courtship free of interference that the son of Phoenix was enabled to pull down the first division of the purse, which had a net value of $7,480.
