PUBLIC OWNERSHIP LEAGUE GETS START AT JUNCTION

S. J. Chubb Elected Chairman of Committee of Ten to Assist Central Organization.

Toronto Junction, March 15.—(Special.)—The Public Ownership League of Toronto Junction was well started to-night, the public meeting called by the mayor in the town hall being largely attended.

A committee was formed to represent the Junction on the central committee, as follows: S. J. Chubb, R. Stretton, Dr. R. R. Hopkins, John Brown, Mayor W. A. Baird, W. R. Shephard, R. G. Agnew, J. C. Wright, William Pears and S. Ryding.

S. J. Chubb was elected chairman; R. Stretton, vice-chairman; J. C. Wright, secretary, and R. G. Agnew, treasurer.

Mayor W. A. Baird presided, and Jos. Cross was appointed temporary secretary. The mayor said he had acceded to the request of a number of citizens who favored the organization of a Public Ownership League in Toronto Junction.

The mayor declared that he did not know of any movement that was receiving the same attention from the public as the question of public ownership. While public sentiment was strongly in favor of the idea, there would be honest difference of opinion when it came to putting it into effect, and the only way to crystallize opinion and make an attempt to put public ownership into effect was to organize. Not Extremists.

J. H. Duthie, a member of the South Toronto executive, addressed the meeting, explaining the purpose of the promoters of the league. He said it was hardly likely that the people of Canada would favor putting public ownership into effect in its extreme form. He believed, however, the great majority of the people were in favor of at least the operation of many public utilities by the people. There was nothing particularly good in connection with the private ownership of such utilities as telegraphs and telephones. He criticized the Toronto Street Railway system and referred to the condition of some of the big carrying companies. The failure of the railways recently was not due so much to stress of weather as to the failure of the companies to supply sufficient motive power.

The railway commission of Canada was a failure, Mr. Duthie declared. It was formed to protect the people and to control the rates, and also it has been in existence since 1903 it had failed to perform the duties for which it was appointed. It had never undertaken to analyze or criticize the tariffs submitted by the carrying companies.

The Public Ownership League was not looking so far ahead as the control of the carrying companies, but there was no reason why the government should not exercise this control. The duty of the people of Canada, in Mr. Duthie's opinion, did not end with the election of members of parliament, but it was their duty to force their representatives to do their duty.

The mayor took exception to that portion of Mr. Duthie's speech referring to the railway commission. He said the commission had visited Toronto with popular approval.

Mr. Duthie explained that he did not mean to say the commission had done nothing, but that it had failed to do what it was appointed to do.

J. M. Wilkinson of the Toronto committee explained the plan of organization as carried out in Toronto, and was followed by W. A. Shephard of Toronto, who gave an excellent address on the success of public ownership in Glasgow and New Zealand. In Canada, he declared, the corporations owned the government.

All Favor League.

A resolution submitted by John Brown, and seconded by Councilor Irvine, that the meeting approve of the public ownership of all utilities that are natural monopolies, was carried unanimously, after a gentleman named Murray had called for something definite from the promoters of the meeting. While he believed all were in favor of public ownership, he did the league propose to take them?

Col. Belcher, mayor of Southampton, was invited by the chairman to speak, and he declared himself a firm believer in public ownership of many years' standing. Thirteen years ago he had been instrumental in having a bylaw passed to buy the lighting plant of the Town of Southampton, but his successor had the utility placed in the hands of a private corporation, and the town had been suffering ever since. This movement would surely touch the hearts of the people of Canada.

The selection of the committee to represent Toronto Junction on the Central League was then proceeded with, and about twenty names were suggested. Afterwards this list was reduced to ten, and these were declared elected.

TENDERS WANTED.

Tenders, in whole or part, will be received by the undersigned up to March 15, 1907, at 2 o'clock, for the construction of a private corporation and the town had been suffering ever since. This movement would surely touch the hearts of the people of Canada.

Plans, specifications and all particulars may be obtained at the office of the architects, at the Bank of Montreal, North America, Toronto Junction.

North Toronto.

The death of Colin Skinner, one of Toronto's best known citizens, occurred Thursday, at the home of his daughter, Dr. Skinner, Carlton-street, Toronto. Deceased at one time conducted a large business at a florist in Davisville, but had for some years been living a retired life. He is survived by three daughters, J. L. Tretheway and Dr. Skinner, city, and Mrs. Nesbitt of North Toronto.

The town's private bill has passed the committee stage in the legislature, and the following applications were granted: To confirm the tax sales; to change the municipality election day to New Year's Day; and to relieve the ratepayers on the side streets from paying towards the maintenance of the Young-street lighting, if such side streets will be illuminated by electricity on the local improvement plan. The clause providing for an extension of time for the returning of the assessment roll from July 1 to 15 was thrown out, on the ground that if the change proved beneficial to one municipality it would be equally beneficial to others, and the time uniform over the whole province.

Rev. D. C. Hossack, M.A., LL.B., will deliver a lecture in the Deer Park Presbyterian Church on Tuesday evening. His subject will be "Present Day Problems." Musical selections will be given by Miss Mackenzie, Miss, and Mr. N. T. Ives and others. The proceeds are in aid of the mortgage interest fund.

Individual members of the Davisville Methodist Church received word from their pastor, Rev. Newton Hill, who is at Clifton Springs for the recuperation of his health, that he is slowly recovering.

J. M. Hunt of Roehampton-avenue is the proud father of a son.

A special meeting of the public school board was held last night at which the appointment of George Leach as caretaker of Eglington school was confirmed at a salary of $420 a year. Miss B. M. Hughes of Woodbridge was appointed teacher of the junior classes at a salary of $360.

The court of revision confirmed the frontage measurement of the different properties benefited by the extension of the water main on Glenwood-avenue.

Bracebridge. Yarmouth Lodge, S.O.E., will meet York Lodge, S.O.E., in a friendly game of carpet ball and cribbage on Wednesday evening next, March 20, in McBean's Hall, College-street.

Mrs. R. Punnett is improving in health.

Thornhill. Miss L. Melish left on Monday for Calgary, where she will be married to Chesney James. She will reside at Carstairs, Alta.

The monthly social evening of the Epworth League was held at the parsonage on Tuesday evening. The chief feature of the evening was the presentation of a purse of $50 to Rev. Geo. McKinley by the young people of the church.

"Wearing the Green"

A sure sign of spring is the approach of St. Patrick's Day and the showing of shamrocks in florists' windows. Long before this, however, we have had our spring showing ready. Our spring suits and overcoats for men are all in stock and ready to "try on." We have used all our skill and knowledge to pick out the best cloths, best patterns and the best tailored clothing that has ever been offered in this country. Those who have bought here before know the guaranteed quality of our men's clothing. Those who have not, will be pleased when they do.

Montreal Agent of Trappist Monks Tried to Boon His Business.

Montreal, March 15.—(Special.)—Jos. O. Motard, senior partner of the firm of Motard, Fils & Senecal, 5 Place Royale, importers of wines and liquors, and agents for the Trappist Monks of Oka, has been arrested on a charge of forging notes on the Molsons Bank to the amount of nearly $40,000.

He has admitted his guilt and says the greater part of the money was spent in advertising his business. He stated that the notes are for sums ranging from $100 to $200, to which he had forged names of his regular customers.

Motard tried to raise the money to cover the forged notes, but without success.

NEW DEVELOPMENT COMING.

Sifton Says This Will Call for Different Class of Immigrants.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable) London, March 15.—Hon. Clifford Sifton, interviewed, said that the time was approaching when an entirely new chapter in the development of Canada would be opened. This will call for the presence of a class of British people quite different from that now emigrating. It also would be accompanied by the introduction of capital to develop Canadian industries. "But you must not expect to see matters hurried," he said.

CANADA LOOKS TO LEADERS TO PURGE ITS PARLIAMENT

Insinuation of Immorality Levelled at Ministers Should Be Made Good, Says Star.

Montreal, March 15.—(Special.)—The Star to-night, under the caption "Laurier and Borden Should Act," editorially says:

"There are two men whom the country in special degree holds to be responsible for the tone of parliament. These two men are Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. R. L. Borden. They have in their hands, by common consent, certain powers which no other two men possess. They can purge parliament of an undesirable member, if they act together. They can punish—by the same co-operation—men who are guilty of persistently lowering the tone of debate. They can declare, when a member has taken a polemic position, that he shall make good his words or retire from the house. 'All this being true, the country looks to these two leaders to clear the good name of parliament with respect to the unmistakable threat of Mr. Fowler to reveal the connection of certain ministers with the sale of land to the government and graft in cases where the man who had been twitted with going to sleep in church.'

"There is no mistaking the meaning of Mr. Fowler. His insinuation is an insinuation of immorality. It is leveled against the ministers, of whom there are only about a dozen in the house at present. It also includes the ministerial members who offer a wider target, but whose names are not so generally known. It contains men who would instantly resent any such imputation and call upon the 'standards' to prove their innocence. At least, withdraw them, so far as they themselves are concerned. Conscience should have arisen on the instant and demanded the dismissal of Mr. Fowler from the house. If he failed to establish his debasing insinuations."

"But nothing has happened. Mr. Fowler goes about the country explaining that he was simply 'serving notices' on the ministerial members to keep their tongues off his private affairs, and the country cannot help perceiving that this is precisely what the ministerial members are doing. They could not very well act differently if they were not mortally afraid of Mr. Fowler's data."

The insurance commissioners' report, for which some of them professed to be waiting, is now down, and is printed and in the hands of the members. Yet nothing is being said against Mr. Fowler's insinuation. He is preparing his report for the statement that he is not a member of the committee, and that the ministerial members are doing. They could not very well act differently if they were not mortally afraid of Mr. Fowler's data."

Meanwhile the country stands watching the affair in exasperated indignation. It is heartily ashamed of a parliament which can contain on its benches a man who accuses his fellow members of connection with wine and graft, and the men he accuses, and can go on doing business in quiet, friendly fashion, for all the world as if nothing had happened. But what can the country do? Mr. Fowler has served his notice, and he apparently does not want to exhaust his ammunition and leave himself open to the attacks which his notice was intended to ward off. The ministers and members whom he warned are showing no stomach for such a struggle. They are now ready to their hands. For all the people know, they have accepted Mr. Fowler's proposed saw-off of unsavory members. Apparently they have each decided not to peach on the other and to join forces in the despicable game of footsie with the people."

Look to Leaders. "In its helplessness, the country looks to the two men who are guarantors of the tone of parliament, Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. Borden. Sir Wilfrid Laurier should at once give Mr. Fowler the choice between proceeding with his charges and withdrawing them. If he chooses to proceed, he should support his charges with definite charges, and sworn testimony, and still remain a member of any party which Mr. Borden will consent to support."

"The name of parliament ought to be cleared, and it ought to be cleared by a prosecution. The country ought to be cleared before Sir Wilfrid and his ministers think of going to London. It ought to be cleared by the men who are to be guilty of the conduct insinuated."

dents for whose visit to the White House, J. Pierpont Morgan arranged before his departure for Europe, held a conference at the Grand Central Station to-day, and decided not to go to Washington.

It is understood that the reason for this conclusion was that the four gentlemen involved did not feel that they had any proper mandate from the railroad corporations to represent them.

They felt they could not assume the position of a self-constituted commission to formulate or present the views of the hundreds of railroad companies, which, in turn, are owned by millions of shareholders.

They recognized that the railroad managers of the United States are not themselves in perfect accord, and that, until some method could be adopted for securing a consensus of opinion, a visit to the president would be idle.
