Chicago Gossip.

J. J. Dixon has the following this evening from Chicago :

Wheat—Good rains reported west, southwest and northwest, were offset this morning in wheat by strong cables from both the United Kingdom and Continental markets. Local traders, as a rule, were bearish, on favorable crop outlook, while seaboard people were good buyers, on foreign advices. The market has ruled firm, with comparatively small fluctuation all day. The May option ruled relatively stronger than the deferred.

Corn—There were receipts of corn and a
