AT VARIOUS SPORTS

Hod Stuart is branching out along new lines. As an acrobat of the first water, the man with the brick scuttle handle classes in the first ranks. One day he is quoted as being in favor of playing with the Wanderers, of Montreal, then it is some other town. The Toronto Telegram contains the following item: It is officially announced that Hod Stuart will begin the international season today, with his old club, Pittsburgh, and that he will play with them three times this week at a rate. This he can easily do as he is not needed here for some time, but it is feared that the remembrance of the pleasant times he spent in Ottawa and Quebec will continue to tug at his heartstrings till he will be unable to stand it any more. He is the greatest hockey general in the world today.

It is announced today on good authority that both Blair Russell, president of the Victoria Hockey Club, and Russell Bowie will be out again, at least at the beginning of the season. Bowie has been approached by agents of both Wanderers and Montreal, and that he has refused overtures on the part of both.

The managers and promoters of the six-day grind in New York have determined on a policy, which if followed, will result in the withdrawal of many of the riders. The race in former years was about the limit for brutality. A law was then passed compelling the riders to double up, each man to ride not more than twelve hours a day throughout the week. The contestants have, in so far as was possible, changed off every six hours. Now the management insists that they change off every hour. At first glance this would seem to be better for the men, but it is not. Five or six hours' sleep in a stretch is worth twelve or fourteen taken alternately every hour. When a weary man goes to sleep there is great trouble in getting him out in an hour, not to speak of the terrific strain of having one's sleep broken at such brief intervals. The object of the move is said to be to increase the speed of the riders. The pace will, undoubtedly be greater for a short time, then there will be a falling off.

The Gans-Herman bout is arousing a great deal of interest in sporting circles. Two to one is now being offered on the dusky boy from Baltimore, with few takers. The kid is pretty good—good enough to whip an army of Herreras and Yangers, but we can't see him in the coming bout. But, then, as we have witnessed before, one never can tell.

Tommy Murphy, the little New Yorker, who is matched to meet Young Corbett in a six-round affair in Philadelphia, at an early date, will be put to a severe test tonight when he stacks up against Matty Baldwin, the great little New England States boxer, at Chelsea. If Murphy trims Baldwin, he must be conceded a look-in at least with Corbett, but up to date he has done nothing to cause the sporting world to sit up and take notice. McGovern dropped him in one round about a year ago, but Tommy has improved since then, and—well, we shall see what we shall see.

Some of Jack O'Brien's friends must have taken him in hand. We haven't received a press notice containing any of his championship lectures for several days. As a rule, when two boxers meet, one of them gets the wind knocked out of him. "A rule doesn't seem to work in this case. Both Burns and 'Jaw' have been slinging duffs in all directions, but up to date nothing has resulted from them. Burns and Jack Johnson were apparently as good as matched the other day, but now the stuff is all off. Burns insists that the battle take place before Tom McCarey's club, and McCarey won't let the moke get within a mile of his club. What is that?

Frank Gotch, "ex-champ" rasser," of "Uncle Sam's" big, unsettled domain, says that he was knocked out in his recent wrestling bout with Egeed Beel, the Wisconsin wonder. Gotch was the man who wanted to arrange for a boxing tournament with Jeffries some time ago. There would probably have been two punches delivered. Jeff would have landed on Frankie, and Frank would have connected with the floor. Such is life—sporting life.

BALL PLAYERS ARE IN TRAINING NOW

Idleness in Winter Has Put Many a Diamond Star to the Bad.

The coming baseball season is going to find more ball players in condition at the opening than was ever known before.

The ball player has come to look upon fat as a leper does the first sign of the dreaded disease.

According to Bozeman Bulger, the New York expert, accumulation of fat is the beginning of the downfall of all ball players and these knights of the diamond have come to realize it in a forcible manner. It means a gradual drop from his high estate to days without fame and a decrease in salary.

Years ago the big, fat, heavy-set ball player was not looked on with disgust. In those days some of them were not expected to run fast or be lively in the field. Their office was to hit the ball, and when that was done the public was satisfied. Accumulation of weight as a rule does not affect the hitting. The eye is the secret of good batting, and weight behind the swing really helps the hitter.

Now it is different. A successful ball player must be little and active. Team work has made it necessary for every man to be able to steal a base or chase a long drive when he is the keynote to the situation. The managers want fast men. They prefer a fast man and an ordinary hitter to a slugger who is slow.

The real reason that Sandow Mertes was deposed as left fielder of the Giants lay in the fact that he was getting too fat. After going to St. Louis he found the same trouble, and toward the close of the season he had to spend several weeks at a warm spring in Michigan to see if he couldn't reduce his weight, and thereby make his legs more active. As all fans know, when Mertes is right there is no faster man in the business in skirting the bases.

The Highlanders, as a rule, are men not disposed to fatness, and the only player who is having serious trouble in that respect is Jimmy Williams. He knows it, too, and beginning with last July he began a systematic method of training which kept him down to playing weight. During the winter he is keeping it up, and there will be little left for the trainers to do in the spring.

Little Donlin, of the Giants, accumulated some weight while laid up with his leg last summer, and he is also getting into shape so as to be ready for the spring work. Donlin, Billy Gilbert and Kleinow spend a few hours every day playing indoor baseball in one of the armories.

Manager McGraw, of the Giants, is also taking on weight, but as he does not play regular it makes no particular difference. Still McGraw, like other professional athletes, abhors the idea of getting fat and has begun a flesh reducing system.

Manager Griffith and Willie Keeler of the Highlanders, will never have any trouble on that score. A few more pounds wouldn't hurt them, and Clarkson, the pitcher, would give half of his salary to be able to gain 15 or 20 pounds.

HOCKEY.

BERLIN IS ENTHUSIASTIC. Berlin, Dec. 11.—Over 200 hockey fans enthused over a big joint practice of the senior and intermediate hockey teams last night. The senior champions had Punch Ellis in goal, Jim McGinnis of last year's forward line, at point; Uncle Gross at cover. Schmidt, Cochran and Knell, who have been together four years, were again on the job. The new man will likely be picked from Dumart, Selbert, Brinkert, or Wideman. If last year's forward line remains intact, Charlton's place at point will likely be filled by Charley Rosekat.

The Selbert family, western champions, are out with a deft to meet the Hall tribe of Toronto, in home-and-home games.

The Berlin seniors' first game will be with the Marlboros here, Dec. 21. Galt plays here Christmas, and the St. George's likely in the holiday week.

BELLEVILLE LOSES A GOOD ONE.

Belleville, Dec. 11.—Belleville's junior O. H. A. team has suffered a serious loss in the removal to Toronto of Lane Spangenberg, of the Bank of Commerce, who has to report at the head office today. His place will be hard to fill, as he was the best young player this city has turned out. He was a great wing man.

THE RING.

WANT BIG FIGHT.

Rhyolite, Nevada, Dec. 12.—The Rhyolite Athletic Association has been formed with a capital of $50,000 to promote a finish fight between Jack O'Brien and Tommy Burns. Both men have agreed to fight here for a purse of $25,000.

ONE FOR GARDNER.

Denver, Dec. 12.—Jimmy Gardner, of Lowell, Mass., was given the decision over Rube Smith, of Denver after a ten-round go here last night. Gardner outclassed Smith, and had him nearly out twice.

SKATING.

NEW GAME.

New York Herald: Rugby polo in the roller skating rinks is a new departure, being played with an inflated ball seven inches in diameter, and free from the rougher tactics as seen in roller polo and in hockey. The costume of the player is of the lightest, no armor being required, and the injuries to the players are reduced to a minimum.

NEW CLUBS CAUSE SHIFT IN GROUPS

Rearrangement in Intermediate Series Made by O. H. A. Sub-Committee.

Toronto, Dec. 11.—At a meeting of the sub-committee of the O. H. A., with J. Ross Robertson in the chair, it was found necessary, in view of some belated entries, to make several changes in the grouping. The new clubs are St. Catharines and Guelph intermediates, and the changes affect groups Nos. 4, 6 and 8 and the formation of a new group, to be called group No. 43. St. Catharines rink has been used for roller skating, and it was not until yesterday that it was learned that the hockeyists could have it this winter for their purposes. Guelph intermediates were overlooked by the general executive after having paid their fees at the annual meeting.

Welland was taken out of group No. 4A and placed in group No. 4B, of which Hugh A. Rose will be convener, to meet at Welland. St. George's II, Argonauts II, Newmarket, will now arrange home and home games instead of splitting the district. St. Catharines goes in group No. 4B, and Port Colborne will be the third club in that district, being transferred from group No. 8. Guelph II was added to No. 8, and Simcoe transferred to group No. 6, with Dutton, St. Thomas, and Tilsonburg. This leaves the districts affected as follows:

Group No. 4A—St. George's II, Newmarket, Argonaut II. Convener, Bert Short, Toronto. Meet at Toronto.

Group No. 4B—St. Catharines, Welland, Port Colborne. Convener, Hugh A. Rose, Welland. Meet at Welland.

Group No. 6—Tilsonburg, St. Thomas, Dutton and Simcoe. Convener, H. W. Bodman, Dutton. Meet at St. Thomas.

Group No. 8—Paris, Brantford, Guelph. Convener, J. M. Matthews, Brantford. Meet at Brantford.

The conveners and clubs were notified of the changes, and the schedule meetings will be all held by Thursday night at the latest.

BASEBALL.

PITTSBURGH TO LOSE A BUNCH.

Pittsburg, Pa., Dec. 10.—President Barney Dreyfus, of the Pittsburg Baseball Club, will ask waivers on 21 of the 43 players now under reserve. He will also try to secure three new players, evidently diamond stars of great magnitude. He said today in parrying a question as to their identity that he would give all of the 21 men Pittsburg will part with, several others besides, and a cash consideration, if necessary, to secure the three men he wishes to add to his roster.

Of the Pittsburg players under reserve sixteen are pitchers, not including "Lefty" McIlveen, who plays in the outfield, too. In this number is also a new pitcher whom President Dreyfus has secured, but whose identity he will not reveal.

Quite a number of pitchers are to be parted with, but President Dreyfus says he knows nothing about the story that President Hermann, of the Reds, is to get Otis Clymer.

BROOKLYN STORY DENIED.

New York, Dec. 11.—Emphatic denial was given both by the New York National League Club and the Brooklyn Club yesterday to the recently published yarn that New York had offered $25,000 for the services of Jordan and Lumley, two Brooklyn players, and that the Brooklyn management was on the point of accepting the sum and permitting the men to join the Giants.

CURLING.

SOUTHAMPTON CLUB ORGANIZES.

Southampton, Dec. 11.—The Southampton Curling Club held their annual meeting last night. A large number of members were present, including Lieut.-Col. Belcher, the mayor and other prominent citizens. The following is a list of the officers for the coming season: Honorary president, Lieut.-Col. Belcher; mayor, president, W. J. Cameron; vice-president, G. T. McIver; treasurer, A. F. Bowman; secretary, John McVieley; chaplain, Rev. Mr. Terryberry. The club is looking forward to a prosperous season, and the "Glen" trophy is still in their possession. They are now receiving challenges from outside clubs, which will be pulled off as soon as the ice is in good condition.

NEW CLUBS ADMITTED.

Toronto, Dec. 11.—Belleville and New Hamburg have been admitted to the Ontario Curling Association. Belleville has been added to group five tankard and two district cup, and New Hamburg to group seven tankard and four district cup. Midland has disbanded. Group 6, district cup, has been subdivided, according to the instructions of the semi-annual meeting as follows: Section A: Detroit, Toledo, Windsor, Fort Wayne, Grand Rapids, Sarnia, Theodor and Forest, to play at Sarnia. Section B: St. Marys, Ingersoll, Chatham, St. Thomas, Petrolia, Parkhill, London and London Thistles, at London.

The winners of the two sections will meet at a place to be fixed by Umpire W. K. Cameron, of St. Thomas. The Ontario annual will be out next week.

THE WHEEL.

THE SIX-DAY GRIND.

New York, Dec. 12.—Try as they will, Walthour and Beddell seem unable to make up the lap they are behind the other twelve teams that remain in the bicycle race at Madison Square Garden. They are still confident of making the distance however. At 7 o'clock today the twelve leading teams had scored 1,019 miles and 7 laps, and Walthour and Beddell one lap less. This is nearly 74 miles behind the record of 1,093 miles and 1 lap, made by Miller and Waller, in 1899.

Thistles Took Curling Match With Four Rinks From St. Thomas.

St. Thomas went way back and rested itself yesterday when the Granites of that place stacked up against the Thistle rink of London in a curling match. The match was fairly close, and although the local team won out, they had to work hard for every point.

MEDS AND SHAMROCKS

Two very interesting games of basketball were played last night in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium. The Medicals trimmed the Medgets, and the Shamrocks showed their heels to the T. N. B. C. team. Summary:

First game: Medicals (48)—Ross, Crawford, Moore, Polisson, Wilson. Medgets (38)—Wood, McRobert, Duffield, Macdonald, Wilson.
Second game: Shamrocks (48)—W. Brock, Dr. Shaw, Strachan, M. Brock, Smith.

FOOTBALL.

THE SOCCER LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP.

To the Sporting Editor of The Advertiser: Decisions in all games are liable to be incorrect, and so it was in the City Soccer League this year.

The Normalites are labeled champions—yes; but those simon pures, as they style themselves, would have had to hustle some hard to get their just deserts.

The Meds played a game in six inches of snow against the Barracks, under a referee who was a member of the Barracks team. The Meds protested the game before going on to the field on this account. However, like true sports, they gave the soldier boys a game, which should have been a walk in the park.

One of the Meds scored from the half line by a half-back, which was ruled out because the half-back was off-side. Looks strange, doesn't it? However, to let you know what beautiful sports the simon pures are, it would be as well to relate the stand they took at this time. A win for the Meds against the Y. M. C. A. provided the protest was thrown out, but the Normalites refused and champions. The loss of this game made the Y. M. C. A. champions. The win of this game and the protest upheld, tied the Meds and Normalites. The Meds won the game by a score of 2-0. Did the simon pures support the protest? No. They feared meeting the Meds again, which they showed plainly enough in refusing to meet them since in an exhibition game, the simon pures! They had better learn the meaning of the word "true sport."

YESTERDAY'S WINNERS.

GERMAN RACING STATISTICS.

Deutscher Sport, a German sporting paper, publishes some racing statistics which show that Herr Weinberg is at the top of the list of winning owners for the season of 1906 and Fels is the best horse of the year. The son of Hannibal has won, including the Austrian Derby, $46,770, but the best record for Germany is $47,450, made in 1901 by Tuki, a 3-year-old. Felsino, in the same stable, stands at the head of the 4-year-olds, and Fabula is the best 2-year-old of the season. A strange thing in connection with the Weinberg stable is that if a better placed a ten mark piece on each of the horses starting in these colors he would come out a loser by $52, although only five out of the string of twenty had failed to win. The cause of this is a big argument against the totalisator, for the percentage in Germany amounts to 13 per cent and this more than offsets any profit when it occurs. Probably some state of things occurs more or less for the lack of interest taken in racing in Germany, where the entries and forfeits are very heavy, and a great proportion of the money advertised on the programme comes from the pockets of the owners, who have to pay dearly for the privilege of sporting their colors.

SURE REGULATORS—Bandraks and dandelion are known to exert a powerful influence on the liver and kidneys, restoring them to healthful action, inducing a regular flow of the secretions and imparting to the organs complete power to perform their functions. These valuable ingredients enter into the composition of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, and serve to render them the agreeable and salutary medicine they are. There are few pills so effective as they in their action.

MASQUERADES AS MAN

For Ten Years Woman Burglar Passed as a Male.

Brisbane, Dec. 11.—The amazing romance of a woman who successfully masqueraded as a man for ten years has been revealed by the arrest here of "William" Edwards on a charge of burglary.

The prisoner's real name is Marion Edwards, but since 1896 she has played the part of a horse trader, rough rider, painter and decorator, laborer and barman, without anyone having the slightest suspicion that she was a woman.

Edwards was wanted in Melbourne for a burglary committed in May of last year.

She was at one time in partnership with a horse trainer named Pollock, who never suspected her sex. She rode, drank and talked like a man.

About six years ago she made love to a Melbourne widow, and eventually "married" her in St. Francis Church in that city. She had a number of other love affairs, and on one occasion two Brisbane girls had a furious quarrel regarding her affections.

At the Brisbane Exhibition last year Edwards acted as a barman. Afterward she worked as a laborer, removing lumber from the exhibition grounds, and her extraordinary strength excited the comment of the other workmen. For some time also Edwards was in business as house painter and decorator.

In Sweden a separate car must be provided on suburban night trains out of Stockholm for the accommodation of intoxicated persons.
