The Horrible Crime of a Homeless Pole.

Massacre of Missionaries in Africa Avenged.

Evacuation of Crete-The Sultan's Latest Scheme-The Kaiser's Tour.

London, Nov. 12.-A homeless Pole named Schneider was given a night's todging in a North London bakery on Thursday night, and yesterday morning he murdered the baker's German assistant, throwing him inside the oven. The baker, alarmed by the stench of the burning body, descended to the bake-house, and Schneider tried to murder him also, clubbing him over the head, and stabbing him in the chest. The shricks of the baker brought the police to the spot, and Schneider was overpowered. The bake-house presented evidence of a rightful struggle having taken place there. It was splashed with blood and strewn with turts of hair. The charred body of the baker's assistant was found in the oven. His skull had been smashed

BLOOD FOR BLOOD.

London, Nov. 12. — The mails from Sierra Leone, West Affrica, bring news of the hanging at Kwellu of thirteen murderers of American missionaries, members of the United Brotherhood of Christ, in the Sherbro district of Sierra Leone last May.

The massacre of the missionaries referred to grew out the dissatisfaction of the natives with the local hut tax. The insurgents burned the mission houses and murdered a number of the missionaries—among them Mr. and Mrs. Cain, and the Misses Archer, Hatfield and Schenck. Several of the missionaries, Mr. and Mrs. Burtner, Mr. and Mrs. Minshall and the Misses Muller and Ward, succeeded, after terrible experiences, in reaching Freetown, capital of the British colony of Sierra Leone. Miss Muller was rescued just in the nick of time by a boat's crew from a British warship. A British expedition was dispatched to the scene of the uprising, and the cremated bodies of several of the missionaries were recovered. Native chiefs, to the number of 100, were arrested by the Vritish authorities and tried for murder. It is probable that the thirteen already executed were the principal promoters of

THE KAISER'S TOUR.

Beyrout, Syria, Nov. 12.-Emperor William and Empress Augusta Victoria went on board the imperial yacht Hohenzollern last evening. They sailed at dawn today, escorted by the German warships Hela and Hertha. Emperor William is to arrive at Cartagena on Nov. 13. The whole Spanish press cherishes the hope that Germany will initiate some sort of European intervention. Official circles pretend to be amazed that such an idea should take hold of the public, and they loudly declare the Kaiser's visit will have no

SAVAGE DUEL. London, Nov. 12.—The Vienna correspondent of the Mail telegraphs: A fierce duel between the notorious Herr Wolff and the Polish deputy, Chevalier de Gniewosse, is the sensation of the hour here. The cause of the duel was swarm of parasites sucking the life blood out of the Austrian nation. The insult rised the ire of the Polish deputies, who rose as one and made for Wolff. The latter was surrounded by a ring of German deputies and a sharp tussle ensued between the representatives of the two nationalities, in the course of which Wolff was badly knocked about by the

When the storm subsided De Gniewosse declared, in behalf of the Polish party, that it repudiated with scorn the insults of a street cad like Wolff. Wolff immediately challenged Gniewosse. The latter selected swords, and the duel was fought under life and death conditions.

Wolff, a journalist by profession, is short, slightly built, and lame in one leg, De Gniewosse is tall and stout. He formerly was an officer. When the word of command was given the two deputies began a furious combat, thrusting and parrying with a rapidity which was bewildering. De Gniewosse, carried away by rage, directed blow after blow at his oponent. Wolff parried the ex-officer's wild onslaughts with cool judgment, and within five minutes caught his rival off his guard and wounded him in two places.

De Gniewosse's head was cut to the bone, while a piece of his right hand was hanging by the skin. But in spite of his serious injuries and the umpire's command to cease, De Gniewosse pressed forward against his adversary, slashing at him savagly, until his own seconds seized and disarmed him.

He was removed to his house, where he will be confined for several weeks. Wolff sauntered to his office and wrote a leading article.

Unseasonable Weather Affects Trade in Some Parts of Canada-Improv ing Demand Reported in Others-Falling Off in Failures.

Wholesale business is quite satisfactory at Victoria, with conditions good, and retail grocery lines also show improvement; but business operations are slack, although ahead of last year's. Trade condiahead of last year's. tions at Vancouver continue favorable, and good business is doing in drygoods, clothing, lumber and building operations, and the increase in bank clearings is large.

OVER THE BORDER.

Bradstreet's report says: While the influence of the elections and of unfavorable weather has been such as to temporarily reduce the amount of current trade, the united strength of the general trade situation is shown by the very satisfactory reports received as to the bank clearings, railroad earnings, prices and other measures of business development. The cereal markets have been quite steadily held, notwithstand-ing the subsidence of the war talk and less active foreign demand, pointing to the strength of the statistical position of most grains. The sugar war goes merrily on, a new independent refinery has started, and the margin between raw and refined is now only 41 per cent, against a margin before the fight began of nearly 92 per cent. Business failures in the United States this week number 187, against 183 last week, and 213 in this week a year ago. Bank clearings totals at 91 cities for the week ended Nov. 10 Wolff's remark at Tuesday's sitting of show total clearances $1,254,558,581—a decrease of 6.9 per cent, as compared decrease of 6.9 per cent, as compared with the corresponding period last year.

Dun & Co.: The country has safely passed the trial of "off year" elections, which for 40 years have always shown a tendency to a change of policy, but this year has entrenched sound money behind a majority impregnable for at least four years in the senate, and has retained a working majority for sound money in the house. The volume of trade has been the greatest ever known in October, and the greatest ever known in any month, except December, 1892. The record of November shows clearings 10.4 per cent larger than last year, and 9.3 per cent larger than in 1892. The railroad earnings in October have been 5.2 per cent larger than last year, and 8.0 per cent larger than in 1992. and 8.0 per cent larger than in 1892. Foreign trade shows an increase of 20 per cent in October in exports, with 36 per cent in exports from New York last week, while imports showed a gain of only 22 per cent in October. It is growing in the minds of holders of wool at the east that the supply of foreign and domestic wool on hand is much greater than has heretofore been supposed. Cotton goods are, on the whole, in better demand. The boot and shoe industry still hesitated because of high prices of leather, and the orders booked are nowhere near what they should be for the season. The money market has been practically unchanged.
