ARGUE FOR CENTRAL COURT

Conference to Be Held To-Morrow Pre paratory to Appearing Before Govt. The proposal of establishing a permanent central criminal court in the city will be thoroly discussed between epresentatives of the city and coun preparatory to laying the matter pefore the attorney-general. Should the idea meet with the approval of the provincial authorities may be necessary to appoint another riminal judge, in which case the tames of T. C. Robinette and H. H. Dewart are suggested as favorable to minister of justice. The arguments likely to be advanced Arrested on Charge of Assaulting before the attorney-general are that under the present system the general sessions are much over-crowded, run ning many times a month over the time prescribed, and thus often necessitating accused persons serving from a month to three months in jail before HAMILTON, Feb. 9.—(Special).—A trial, when bail cannot be secured. It is also contended that the prolonged sessions are very unfair to the jurors,
