

MONDAY MORNING

The Wise Man Swelters Not!

In the history of our business to date we have never sold so much summer clothing as during the past two weeks. Our buyers provided for a big summer trade, but even at that we have had to repeat many times on some lines, and just now our tailors are working tooth and nail to get out a fresh supply of new models and patterns for this week. We expect another month of heavy selling, and are prepared to care for your needs with some very handsome Outing Suits in flannels and homespuns, zephyr weight tweeds, etc., from $10.00 to $30.00.

Trousers from $2.50 to $7.50.

Don't fail to see our Motor Dusters from $2.00 to $20.00, finest in the city.

BUSH FIRES ABATING.

WINNIPEG, July 3.—Official reports WINNIPEG, July 3.—Official reports received at the Canadian Northern offices yesterday state that bush fires in Lavallee district, between Winnipeg and Port Arthur, are abating. The wind has changed to the north, which helped in checking the flames. The country is intensely dry, and there has been no rain fall for some time. AN ACT OF CLEMENGY

The King Remits Sentences on Soldiers in Military Prisons,

OTTAWA, July 3.—(Special.)—A militia order just issued announces that His Majesty the King has been pleased, as an act of elemency marking his accession to the throne, to approve of remission of sentences to soldiers undergoing detention in military prisons and detention barracks. Soldiers undergoing sentence of 56 days or less would be released, while those undergoing longer sentences will be entitled to a remission of one-half of the unexpired portion of their terms. Pardon will also be extended to deserters and absentees from the regular forces, who are required, how-ever, to report themselves in writing. Men who have been in a state of desertion for over five years, or who are physically unfit for service, will not be called upon to rejoin for service, but will be given certificates freeing them from future service.

SENATOR FORGET TAKEN SERI-

MONTREAL, July 3.-(Special.)—While Hon. Senator Forget was on a fishing excursion at Bonaventure River, Baie des Chaldurs, he was taken seriously ill, and was brought home by the Ocean Limited, the C.P.R. sending him home to St. Anns on a special this morning. The senator had been over exerting himself during the trip, and he was considered in a very serious state, but this evening Dr. LaFleur says his patient is much better.

623,000 FOR MISSIONS

Rev. A. B. Simpson of New York Hasn't Lost His Magnetism-One Subscriber Gave $5000.

Following an appeal for the cause of missions by Rev. A. B. Simpson, New York, some $23,000 was pledged at Parkdaie Tabernacle yesterday at the meetings of the Christian and Missionary Alliance. This is not the first time that Rev. Mr. Simpson has spoken in aid of missions in Toronto, and on each previous occasion his remarks have met with tangible appreciation. Three services were held yesterday. At the morning service Rev. Mr. Simpson preached on "Epistles and Apostles Bearing Fruit." His subject in the afternoon was "Bearing Fruit," which the meeting did to the sum of $22,957.65. Taking Revelation, xxii, 2, as his text he pointed out the service.

as his text, he pointed out that the symbol of the tree of life would have a literal fulfilment in the coming ages in the city of God. He emphasized the need of missions and the importance of missionary effort among the heathen. One $5000 Pledge.

Rev. H. L. Stephens, founder of the tabernacle, conducted the pledge-taking campaign by means of cards. The highest pledge was for $3000; one was for $4000; one for $2500; another for $1500, and three for $1000.

The evening offering augmented the afternoon contribution by $44.25, when the speakers were Rev. A. L. Mershon, Alliance School. New York; Mrs. Carrie Judd Montgomery, Oakland, California: Rev. F. A. Christopher, South China.

A quilt made by a Calgary girl, on which the collection was taken, it was stated, would be taken to Thibet by Miss Edith Moull, Toronto.
