Buffalo, Dec. 21.—Pittsburg papers continue to print stories to the effect that Virgiedot. who was either muzzled, throttled or mol who was either muzzled, throttled or molified by the National League magnates at the New York meeting. Upon his arrival in his home town, Dreyfuss declared that he would cut down the bleach the minimum. This means the squeeze announcement from a man of Dreyfuss' conservatism is taken to mean that something has happened, or Dreyfuss would not depopularize himself so far in advance. The angel now in sight seems to be O. H. Wathen, owner of the Louisville of the American Association into major league company. It is said and a quarter for franchise, Forbes Field and players, and that Mr. Wathen is well able to afford the outlay if he sees fit. If this deal should come off, Mr. Wathen is well able to afford the outlay if he sees fit. If this deal should come off, Mr. Wathen would undoubtedly install Derby Day Bill Chymer as manager, for the Louisville magnate has several times expressed the belief that Bill is the best baseball manager extant. Say, but wouldn't it suit Derby Day right down to the ground to be the leader of a crew of Pirates? Wathen is said to have approached Mrs. Schuyler Brittin with regard to a dicker for the St. Louis Cardinals, and also to have been flirting with Charley Ebbets with regard to buying the Dodgers, but both propositions came too high for him.

New York, Dec. 21.—Andy Coakley, who coaches Columbia in baseball, is firm in the belief that George Smith.

McGraw's young pitcher, recruited from Columbia, is big league material. He says Smith has the speed and curves and the qualities in what few National League The young man showed all these games he pitched last year.

PROHIBITION MEASURE MAY BE CHALLENGED

Manitoba Startled by Decision Invalidating Direct Legislation

Winnipeg, Man., Dec. 21.—The appeal court decision, declaring direct legislation invalid, has created a profound sensation locally, the it has been forecasted in legal circles. To day's papers devote much editorial space to the subject, asserting that while no initiative may rest with the people now, in the reconstruction to take place after the war this aspect of the law must and will be changed by act of the British Parliament. The Free Press says editorially that this decision will not prevent the legislature refarring certain proposed laws to the e'ectorate as in the case of the prohibition referendum, and if then approved enacting the same into law. In legal circles it is said the decision may be se'zed upon by these opposed to prohibition to carry before The privy council the legality of the act. The court decision on the direct legis-
