WORKS AT 132 YEARS

This Constantinople Saddlemaker's Father Died at 142.

Constantinople, May 14.-In these days when a man is considered "too old at 10," it is refreshing to learn that there is at Constantinople a veteran called Hadii Raouf, who is still young enough to earn his living as a saddlemaker in his 133rd year, and who has ten more years to go before he can tie his father's record of Even such extreme age as this would not be thought much of in Peru, where Tschudi discovered the baptismal record 142 years before of an Indian who was still alive, and where the church registers at Barranca revealed eleven burials In seven years, giving an average of 109 years to each individual.

When Humboldt was at Lima he saw Pari, who was born 143 years earlier, and whose wife died at 117, after 90 years of the funeral of an Indian, one Hilario whose wife died at 117, after 90 years of wedlock. Only a few years ago, too. there was living in New Jersey, Noah Baby, son of an Indian father and a Thistle Meeting. white mother, who had enjoyed his pipe for 120 years, and was still able to enjoy it at 128; and at the same time Valencia's oldest inhabitant was a mason, "still hale night at 8 o'clock. and hearty," who had passed his 130th Bank Clearings.

Addresses Large Audience at the Russell Theater, Supported By Dominion Ministers.

Ottawa, May 14.-Hon. A. G. Mac-Kay made his debut at the federal capital tonight before a large and entirely harmonious audience in the Russell Theater. Sir Wilfrid Laurier was unable to be present owing to the necessity of staying at his post in the Commons, but the moral support of the federal Liberals was evidenced in the presence and speeches of Hon. George P. Graham and Hon, Rodolphe Lemieux, and in the backing of a large number of Liberal members of Parliament, who were seated on the platform. Hon. Mr. Graham, who earlier in the day had tendered a luncheon to Mr. MacKay and the Ottawa candidates bespoke for his successor in the provincial erena the support of every man who believed in the principles advocated by the Lib-They wear longest, they shine eral party, which were the same in either arena, and which Mr. MacKay had so well maintained. Hon. Mr. Lemieux appealed to the French-Canadian electors to stand by the successor in the provincial arena the eral premiers, who had always champloned the rights of the minority and the best traditions of British liberty and fair play. Mr. MacKay, in an aggressive and cogent address, dealt with a few of the issues of the campaign, noting particularly the unfair way in which Ottawa had been treated, as compared with Toronto, in the recent gerrymander and the un-British way in which the Government had by special act of the Legislature deprived the Florence Mining Company of any rights which they might have had in the courts, thereby overriding every principle of fair play and discouraging the investment of foreign capital in New Ontario, Other speak-
