FEW APPEALS ALLOWED

Court of Revision Not Very Lenient to Complainants of Assessed.

The Court of Revision yesterday morning heard 25 appeals from the assessors' returns of 1904. The assessors' returns having been vacated, R. A. Donnelly appeared for seven land residents, on the ground of non-occupation the year round. These were refused, but an appeal by A. A. Patterson was allowed. The house having been vacant for the entire year, G. R. R. Cockburn appealed on the ground of non-occupation and several others of the same nature were refused, the court holding that assessed property would not be assessed this year, the matter would be equalized.
